The Spanish Provisional Government--Declaration in Favor of Civil and Religious Liberty--Gladstone's Address--The Established Church in Ireland--Markets, &c.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SPAIN.

MADRID, October 9.—The Provisional Junta have made a declaration in favor of civil and religious liberty. It is received with enthusiasm, and extensive popular demonstrations have been made in Madrid, specially in favor of religious toleration. Large numbers of workmen are idle in consequence of the agitation, which has caused a temporary suspension of industry and labor in the city. The Provisional Junta assures them that work will be furnished for all who want it.

Rumor says that the Duke and Duchess of Montpensier have been allowed to reenter Spain.

Much excitement was created in Catalonia by the reform in the customs tariff.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, October 9.—Right Hon. Mr. Gladstone has delivered his address to the electors of South Lancashire. After reviewing the progress of reform in England, he proceeds to criticize the course of the government, condemning the increased estimates in regard to Ireland. He says the true policy would be to make the law the friend of the Irish people. He repudiates the preposition for a general endowment of the Church in Ireland, and says the case against the Established Church is aggravated by the fact that it is the church of the rich. The arguments in favor of its continuance are a satire on misapplied funds, and the established Church is a mark of past oppression. This establishment will give the clergy of that Church more scope. The interests of the Irish people must be carried, for the revenue must be applied to the public and social works, and not to religious establishments. Mr. Gladstone closed with an appeal to the voters of south Lancashire to support the only just policy which England can pursue.

RELIGIOUS.

The Episcopal General Convention.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, October 9, 1868.

The Episcopal General Convention met at ten o'clock this morning, in Trinity Chapel, and passed an hour in the usual devotional exercises. Bishop McClosky, of Michigan, officiated, assisted by Rev. Dr. S. Y. McMasters, of Minnesota.

The Convention was called to order at half-past eleven o'clock by President Rev. Dr. James Craik, nearly all the delegates being present.

The President submitted the Treasurer's report, containing the following summary of expenses and receipts of the General Convention of 1865: Total disbursements, $8,295.55; receipts, $7,546—excess over disbursements, $746.55; balance due Treasurer, $457.85. Statement referred to Committee on Expenses.

The Committee on New Dioceses reported favorably upon the admission of the Diocese of Nebraska, under the name of the Council of Nebraska.

T. B. Ruggles, a member of the Committee, objected to changing the titles of the church organizations in the United States, and thought the name Diocese should be adhered to. The Convention, he said, should carefully guard against all such innovations.

Rev. Dr. Howe, of Philadelphia, agreed with Mr. Ruggles that if the Convention set this precedent it would not be long before Dioceses would be asking for admission under the name of Reformed Catholic Churches or Synods.

Rev. Dr. Petkin, of Michigan, was in favor of admitting the Diocese under the name of Council.

Rev. Dr. Mead, of Connecticut, opposed the admission of the Diocese of Nebraska under the title of Council, as unconstitutional. He, however, proposed to vote for their admission, conditional upon their changing their title as soon as their Diocese should meet.

Rev. Dr. Littlejohn, of Brooklyn, thought this debate premature, because the matter was under consideration by the Committee on Canons, and they had not yet reported on it.

Dr. Littlejohn added he held that a new Diocese had the power to settle on either word.

Judge Otis, of Illinois, opposed it and argued that such innovations should originate, if at all, in the General Convention. He, however, favored admitting them now, on a pledge that they would discard Council and adopt the recognized title of Diocese at their first meeting.

Judge Stevenson, of Kentucky, said the new Diocese should not be admitted, because such action would be unprecedented.

Judge Battle, of North Carolina, strongly favored the admission, arguing their right thereto from a legal point of view.

Rev. Joshua Peterkin, of Virginia, coincided with the previous speaker, regarding the right to employ either word. The speaker was interrupted by the reading of a message from the House of Bishops, notifying the General Convention that they had passed the concurrent resolution looking to the procuring of a more convenient and suitable building in which to hold the sessions of the Convention.

Rev. Dr. Goodwin, of Penna., supported the resolution.

Hon. Hamilton Fisk moved to amend the resolution so as to have it read that the Diocese of Nebraska should be admitted as soon as they had amended their Constitution and dropped the obnoxious title of Council.

Rev. Wm. Adams, of Tennessee, asked that the resolutioe be amended so as to admit the Council of Nebraska to full canonical union with this church, with the understanding that the word Council, as used in their Constitution, is identical and perfectly synonymous with the word "Convention." He also advocated the use of the word "Council" in place of "Convention," as the mere descriptive of the triennial meetings of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States. He objected to the word "convention," because the Spiritualists, Baptists and other sheld "conventions." He thought the Episcopal Convention should not reject the Diocese of Nebraska, because they had used the word "council" until the House of Bishops had expelled Bishop Whipple for representing in their Assembly the Council of Virginia.

After recess a message was received from the House of Bishops stating that it had adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, The House of Clerical and Lay Deputies concurring, the Diocese of Nebraska be and the same is hereby admitted into union with the General Convention of the Church in the United States.

After some interruptions, Rev. Dr. Goodwin moved the entire subject be postponed until a report be received from the Committee on Canons on the general subject.

Judge Otis, of Illinois, said he had a substitute for the subject to offer, which he had submitted to the Bishops and Deputies of Nebraska and they approved it. It had nothing to do with the changes in the ritual, as to changing words in the original service, &c., but he believed it would be passed by the house. It was as follows: Adopt the report with this proviso—"Provided, That in admitting the new Diocese of Nebraska this House does not intend to sanction the change of name from 'Convention' to 'Council' by the Diocese of Nebraska, until the constitution and canons of the General Convention are so changed in matter, thereby provided for by amendments and alteration.

After some further discussion on the motion of Judge Otis, the whole subject was tabled.

Judge Otis then moved to take up the message from the House of Bishops and concur therein, and that the proviso be added.

The President stated the question without the proviso.

Hon. Hamilton Fish asked if there could be no amendment to the resolution of the House of Bishops.

Judge Otis said after the resolution should be concurred in, he would move the proviso.

Rev. Dr. Howe, of Pa., would not vote for the resolution without the proviso.

Rev. Dr. Mead, of Connecticut, would agree with the last speaker, but without referring to the House of Bishops would wish an expression of opinion to the effect that the conduct of Nebraska was irregular in changing the name of their annual assemblage.

Rev. Dr. Norton, of Virginia, moved the words "Protestant Episcopal" be inserted before the word "church" in the resolution of the House of Bishops.

The Convention at this point adjourned till to-morrow.

UNITARIAN CONFERENCE.

The National Unitarian Conference concluded its session to-day. T. D. Elliott was re-elected President. A subscription of twenty-four hundred dollars was raised for the Indian mission. Rev. Dr. Bellows, by invitation, delivered the address, reciting his experience during his recent European tour. In conclusion he offered a resolution to consider the expediency of establishing a mission church in Paris, and in favor of cultivating close relations with English Unitarians. Adopted. Rev. Dr. Osgood also addressed the Convention, proposing to found a Unitarian paper to be called the Hemispheres. After the passage of various resolutions the Convention adjourned sine die.

GEORGIA.

Order of General Meade to Preserve the Peace--Proclamation of Gov. Bullock.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ATLANTA, October 9—General Meade has issued an order distributing the forces under his command to points where he deems it necessary to enforce the laws and preserve order until after the election. Military officers are instructed to act in aid and co-operation and in subordination to civil authorities, and are to exercise discretion and judgment, unbiased by political or other prejudices. He also appeals to the people to co-operate with him and the civil authorities in sustaining law and order, urges abstinence from inflammatory and incendiary appeals to passion, discountenancing keeping open of liquor shops on days of political meetings and of elections, and also the carrying of arms and the assertion of individual rights, and construing of laws by the force of arms; Let each citizen determine that all who under the law have a right to the ballot shall exercise it undisturbed, and let disputed points be referred to the courts. The General hopes he can rely on the good sense of the mass of the people, and not be compelled to exercise force, which he would most reluctantly employ.

Governor Bullock has issued a proclamation commanding Sheriffs and each and every other civil officer in every county to see to it that the lives and property of all citizens, and the peace of the community are preserved, and that persons are protected in the full exercise of their civil and and political rights and privileges, and charging upon every person resident in the State, that they render prompt and willing obedience to the Sheriffs and all other civil officers, under all circumstances whatever, and that they demand from said officers, when threatened or disturbed in person or property, or denied their political or civil rights, and failing to receive such protection, they report the facts to this department.

The Alabama Legislature.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., October 9.—Both Houses have adopted a resolution to adjourn to-morrow and re-assemble on the 2d of November. It is generally understood registration cannot be completed in time for the election. No election bill has been passed and they will probably adjourn without passing one.

CRAWFORD COUNTY.

Republican Mass Meeting—Tremendous Outpouring of the Masses—Speeches by ex-Governor Curtin and Senator Wilson—Hon. Thomas M. Marshall at Titusville.

[Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

MEADVILLE, October 9, 1868.

The Republican Mass Meeting here today was one of the largest ever held in Northern Pennsylvania. Miles on miles of enthusiastic Radicals came from every direction, and hundreds of vehicles, loaded with voters, did not join in the procession because there was not room enough in the streets to march. At two o'clock P. M. the meeting was called to order by the Chairman, G. B. Delamatter, Esq., and after short speeches by General Hartranft and Colonel Davidson, the Chairman introduced Ex-Governor Curtin, who, for over an hour and a half, addressed the multitude. His speech was received with the most enthusiastic applause, and the crowd insisted that he should speak for some time longer. This, however, is a section where Curtin has thousands of friends, and his friends were clamorous to hear him. About four o'clock he retired, and was followed by Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, who made a speech of more than an hour in length, which was listened to with close attention. The crowd was so large that hundreds could not hear him. His speech made a marked impression, and was frequently interrupted with applause.

To-night the Grant Guards, Tanners and various clubs are out in procession, and the town is a blaze of light with torches and illuminations.

The procession to-day was a grand success. Among the banners and transparencies was one with a picture of Blair asleep, with an African, and the motto "I would rather sleep with a nigger than with a Democrat." Another transparency bore the inscription "Crawford county is good for two thousand majority."

The meeting exceeded the expectations of the most sanguine Republicans.

To-morrow Governor Curtin goes to Conneautville to speak. The meeting promises to be very large and enthusiastic.

A mass meeting at Titusville to-day was addressed by Gen. Hartranft and Hon. T. M. Marshall, of Pittsburgh. This quarter of the State is alive, and the majority will be fully as large as in any previous campaign—probably larger.

Senator Wilson goes East to-morrow.

The steamship Alaska sailed for Aspinwall this morning with a large list of passengers and 1,250 tons of freight for San Francisco; included was a lot of railroad iron and a locomotive for the Central Pacific Railroad.

OIL REGIONS.

Large Republican Meeting at Titusville.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

TITUSVILLE, October 9.—The Republicans of the oil regions held a very large mass meeting in this city to-night. Upwards of one thousand torches were in line. The buildings along the principal streets were brilliantly illuminated and considerable enthusiasm was manifested. The meeting was addressed by Hon. Thos. M. Marshall, of Pittsburgh, Gen. Hartranft and Col. Rogers.

THE CAPITAL.

The Cession of St. Thomas—Naturalization Treaty—Revenue Appointments—The Camilla Riot.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, October 9, 1868.

THE SESSION OF ST. THOMAS.

It is understood the Danish Government has accepted President Johnson's proposition to enlarge the period allowed for the ratification of the Treaty of cession of St. Thomas for one year.

REVENUE APPOINTMENTS.

The following appointments have been made: Storekeepers—D. D. Halmar, and Wm. Clotnuthy, Fifth District, Tennessee; J. A. February, Second District, Tennessee; John W. Pruett, Seventh District, Kentucky; Wm. H. Hotts, Twenty-third District, Pennsylvania. Gaugers—J. O. Ensly, Eighth District, Kentucky.

THE CAMILLA RIOT.

Gen. Sibley's report of Camilla affairs covers the report of Capt. Mills, sent there to investigate it. Gen. Sibley says no action was taken by the civil authorities. No inquest has been held and it is not possible to bring the guilty parties to justice, as the civil authorities justify the proceedings.

NATURALIZATION TREATIES.

Rumor says Reverdy Johnson has signed a Naturalization Treaty with Great Britain.

Naturalization Frauds.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

EASTON, PA., October 9.—Developments of frauds in the granting of naturalization papers have been made to-day, tending to show that out of five hundred naturalizations obtained in this city over three hundred are illegal. The Court has discharged persons who were prosecuted for perjury in some of these cases.

Convention in Clinton—Immense Outpouring of the Loyal Masses.

In accordance with a previous call, a grand Mass Convention came off in Clinton, Findley township, on Thursday, October 8th. The morning was cold, wet and disagreeable, yet, notwithstanding this, the loyal masses turned out, and the meeting was a complete success. Findley township is the stronghold of the "unterrified" on the South Side, but judging from the demonstration made on Thursday, the Democrats will not have so strong a hold on the township after the 3d of November.

The delegations from Moon, Robinson and North Fayette were met at the west end of the town by delegations from different townships in Beaver county and by the Findley township delegation.

Part of the delegation from the Moon and Robinson townships was a company of uniformed ladies and gentlemen on horseback. They attracted much attention, as also did the part of the Findley delegation on horseback.

Frankfort Springs sent a large delegation, comprising a company of uniformed Tanners and a large number of wagons and buggies.

A beautiful feature of the procession was a large six-horse wagon, tastefully decorated with flags, banners and evergreens. It contained the Hanover Glee Club, the lady members of which were dressed in red, white and blue. As they passed along they discoursed lively campaign songs. The Clinton Glee Club was also in line and the "Valley String Band." The Frankfort Tanner Club was preceded by a band of martial music.

The procession marched through the town and turned into a field at the east end, after which they moved back to a field near the speakers' stand and were dismissed for dinner.

There was a large number of flags and banners in the procession. Amongst the mottoes we noticed the following: "He that loves our land less must love old Seamour." "We go for Seymour as we went for Lee." "Honesty is the best policy." "Let us have Peace." "North Fayette O. K. for Grant." "Loyalty shall govern what Loyalty has won."

The meeting was organized by calling Dr. T. P. Graham, of North Fayette, to the Chair and appointing the following Vice Presidents: Col. John Vance, of Beaver county; Capt. Samuel B. Campbell, of Washington county; Col. Josiah Guy, of Findley township; H. Elliott McBride, of North Fayette township. Mr. John Wilson, Jr., of Beaver, was chosen Secretary.

Dr. Graham, on taking the chair, thanked the meeting for the honor conferred upon him, and in a neat address introduced Hon. Thomas Nicholson, of Beaver county. Mr. Nicholson made a forcible speech on the different issues of the campaign, and was listened to with close attention. At its close the Hanover Glee Club, being loudly called for, took the platform and sang a couple of stirring campaign songs. Rev. Calvert was called for, and responded in a short, though very eloquent, speech. The Clinton Glee Club then sang a couple of songs, after which the Hanover Club, being again called, sang two more songs.

Mr. George Burns, of Findley township, informed the audience that they had engaged some of the best speakers in Pittsburgh for the occasion, and why they were not present he could not tell. He did not wish the people to lay the blame on the getters up of the Convention for the disappointment.

The President then proposed three cheers for Grant, Colfax and the entire Republican ticket, which were given with a will, after which the meeting adjourned.

Third Ward, Allegheny, Vigilance Committee.

At a meeting of the Third Ward Wide Awake Club, held on Wednesday evening, October 7th, the following persons were appointed as a Vigilance Committee at the polls in the First and Second precincts of the Third ward, Allegheny City:

First Precinct—Samuel Hastings, Robt. R. Ray, James Shoals, Geo. Smith, L. R. Lindsey, J. R. Oxley, S. W. McGinniss, Thos. Brown, Chas. Weaver, Wm. Owens, Chas. Robinson, Saml. Duncan, John Hoffman, W. P. Ifft, Christ. Geib, James McBrier and D. L. Smith.

Second Precinct—Fred. Goppert, Casper Gang, Ludwick Shaeffer, Geo. Solomon, Wm. Wettach, A. Krepps, J. H. Myers, Frek. Lang, Fred. Straub, John Stephens and Wm. Dott. By order.

D. L. SMITH, President pro tem.

Jacksonville.

A mass meeting of the Republicans was held at Jacksonville Wednesday. The yeomanry of the surrounding country turned out en masse on horseback, in wagons, and on foot, and there were also a large number of ladies present. The meeting was organized by calling Mr. John Fisher to the chair.

Able addresses were then delivered by Col. Sutlith, of Lancaster, H. H. McCormick, Esq., of the Pittsburgh bar, and General Pierce, of Norfolk, Va., after which the meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Grant and Colfax.

To the Republican Voters of Allegheny County.

The Republican Allegheny County Executive Committee respectfully submit the following suggestions relative to the election of Tuesday next, and earnestly invite the attention of all our friends throughout the county to them:

1st. See that the polls are opened in every district at the earliest hour named by law, and that they are kept open until the latest hour. The polls may be opened at any time from 8 to 10 o'clock A. M., and must be closed at 7 P. M. If full Boards are not present at 8 o'clock, A. M., see that the vacancies are filled and polls opened at 9 o'clock A. M.

2d. Poll the Republican vote as early as possible in every district, keeping lists as nearly correct as practicable while the voting is going on, of all who have voted.

3d. Be prepared with full and perfect lists of the names of every Republican voter in the different districts, and not later than 3 o'clock, P. M., commence sending out and bringing in, and seeing that all Republicans vote whom your lists show have not yet been at the polls.

4th. Have competent and proper men in every district as challengers, and especially have numerous and efficient Block Committee, (and so arranged that they may be relieved from time to time,) who will be responsible for every Republican vote in their respective blocks and districts.

5th. Have our friends pay particular attention to persons offering to vote on naturalization papers, and especially to every person attempting to vote on a Luzerne county naturalization certificate, or on a naturalization certificate issued by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, and bearing date since the 1st day of September last.

6th. To avoid danger of colonization and of illegal voting by persons colonized, be especially careful in scrutining the papers of, and in looking to the assessments of all persons who have lately moved into the election district where they may offer to vote, and about whom and whose former residence little is known.

7th. Whenever an attempt is made to vote illegally, or a vote is cast by any person not having proper papers and not a legal voter of the election district, have the offender promptly arrested.

8th. The following abstract as to qualifications of voters, proof of age, &c., is ESPECIALLY commended to the attention of the voters:

QUALIFICATION OF A VOTER.

1. He must be a native or naturalized CITIZEN of the United States, of the age of TWENTY-ONE YEARS or more.

2. He must have resided in the State at least ONE YEAR, and in his election district at least TEN DAYS immediately preceding such election, and have paid, within two years, a STATE OR COUNTY TAX, which had been assessed within two years and at least ten days before the election.

EXCEPTION.—Persons VOTING ON AGE, (being under twenty-two years of age,) may vote without being assessed and without having paid such tax. This exception does not extend to naturalized citizens.

3. All persons citizens of the United States formerly qualified voters of this State, but who had removed therefrom and returned, and who have been duly assessed and paid taxes, as herein before indicated, are entitled to vote after six months residence in the State.

PROOF OF AGE.

Age may be proved by the oath of the person offering to vote, or by other legal evidence.

PROOF OF RESIDENCE.

Residence within the State may be proved in the same manner as age, but the fact of residence within his proper election district MUST BE PROVED by his own oath and the testimony of at least one qualified elector and competent witness. The residence must be bona fide and not simply for the purpose of voting. IN CASE OF REMOVAL within ten days before the election he may vote in the district from which he removed.

PROOF OF NATURALIZATION.

The only evidence of naturalization is the certificate thereof under the seal of a competent Court, produced to the election officers. ITS LOSS AND CONTENTS CANNOT BE PROVEN in any case.

EXCEPTION—Where a naturalized citizen shall have been a citizen and resident of the district where he offers to vote for at least ten years next preceding the election, his own oath (without production of any certificate) shall be prima facia evidence of naturalization.

IDENTITY.

Although the certificate is evidence of naturalization, yet the person offering to vote MUST, IF REQUIRED, PROVE BY LEGAL EVIDENCE (not his own oath) that he is the IDENTICAL PERSON named in such certificate.

PAYMENT OF TAXES

May be proved by the production of the receipt for the payment of the tax and oath of the person himself or other competent witness. If he fail to produce such receipt he must make oath to the payment of a tax. If required, the genuineness of the receipt must be proved.

OPPOSING EVIDENCE.

Evidence may be produced against any person claiming the right to vote, or to contradict the evidence in his behalf.

GENERAL MATTERS.

Any election officer or qualified elector has the right to CHALLENGE any person offering to vote; and, when objection is thus made, IT IS THE DUTY OF THE INSPECTORS TO REQUIRE SUCH PERSON TO PROVE HIS RIGHT TO VOTE. The testimony must be satisfactory to the Inspectors.

Where there are more names on a TICKET than there ought to be, the ticket should be rejected.

THE POLLS should be closed at the proper hour regardless of the fact whether or not all persons present have voted.

TEMPORARY ABSENCE on public business or in the military service does not disqualify a voter.

NATIVE CITIZENSHIP must be proved when such proof is required by either of the Inspectors or by any qualified voter.

THE MINOR CHILDREN OF PERSONS WHO WERE ALIENS, though born out of United States, if dwelling within the United States at the time of the naturalization of their parents, become citizens by such naturalization of their parents. Proof of the fact, if required, must be made by the production of the certificate (or duplicate thereof), and evidence of identity as in other cases.

JUDGES AND INSPECTORS.

The Inspectors and Judges are required to meet before nine o'clock A. M., and each Inspector shall appoint one clerk. In case the person who received the second highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend, the person who receives the second highest number of votes for Judge shall act in his place. In case the person who received the highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend, the person elected Judge shall appoint an Inspector in his place. In case the Judge elect shall not attend, the Inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a Judge in his place.

If any vacancy shall continue in the Election Board for the space of one hour after the time fixed for opening the election, the voters present shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

By order of the Committee,

RUSSELL ERRETT, Chairman.
JOHN H. STEWART, Secretary.

National Lincoln Monument.

A meeting of citizens of Pittsburgh and vicinity was held at the office of Hon. Thos. M. Howe, Sept. 4, 1868. On motion of John Harper, Esq., Gen. Howe was called to the Chair and F. B. Penniman appointed Secretary.

The commission of Mr. W. H. Corkhill, Agent of the Lincoln Monument Association of Washington, D. C., was read. It was, also, officially stated that the Hon. E. M. Stanton, late Secretary of War, had been adopted as one of the colossal figures to be placed on said Monument.

Mr. Corkhill made a statement of the plans of the Association.

Mr. James M. Cooper offered the following preamble and resolutions:

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 4, 1868.

WHEREAS, The "National Lincoln Monument Association has adopted a colossal bronze statue of Edwin M. Stanton, late Secretary of War, as one of the group of representative men to be placed on the Monument; therefore,

Resolved, By this meeting, informally called together, of the friends and neighbors of Mr. Stanton, that we most cordially approve of the proposed object of placing the figure of the Great War Minister upon the "National Lincoln Monument," as commemorative of the distinguished and invaluable services rendered his country by the man who was the right arm of the administration of the Nation's Martyr, Abraham Lincoln, throughout nearly the whole period of our great National Struggle.

Resolved, That a Committee of two be appointed by the chair to collect funds to carry out the object of the foregoing resolution, and that these proceedings be signed by all present and approving of them.

A committee, consisting of Messrs. Jno. Harper and Geo. A. Berry was appointed to raise the money requisite for the purpose in view.

The sum absolutely required is $2,000; the sum raised is $2,185.

Rally at the Wigwam, East Liberty.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic Republican rallies of the campaign was held Thursday evening at the wigwam, East Liberty.

The meeting was called to order at half past seven o'clock, and on motion of Col. John H. Stewart, the permanent officers of the wigwam were selected to preside.

Pope, the campaign singer was in attendance, which is a sufficient evidence that the music was of a first class character.

Dr. A. H. Gross and General Wm. Blakely entertained the audience in brief but stirring addresses, after which Col. Osman, of Franklin, Pa., took the stand and made a powerful and convincing argument, in favor of the Republican cause and candidates. The gentleman spoke of the financial question, congressional reconstruction measures, records of the two parties, character of the rival candidates, and closed with an eloquent appeal, urging the loyal masses to save the republic by rallying around the standard of Grant and Colfax.

The gentleman's address was quite lengthy, and was frequently interrupted with applause.

At its close, the hour being late, the meeting adjourned with three echoing cheers for Republicanism and the Republican candidates.

Meeting in Versailles Township.

A meeting of the Republicans of Versailles township was held at Shaw's School House on Thursday evening, October 8th.

About 7.30 P. M. the meeting was called to order and the following officers appointed:

President—Mr. David Shaw.

Vice Presidents—Messrs. G. W. Waddle and William Fancette.

Secretaries—T. D. Weddle and D. R. McKee.

The meeting was largely attended by the "Grant and Colfaxers" of Versailles, the ladies of the vicinity and the McKeesport Tanners and Glee Club, which turned out in procession. Upon their arrival three cheers were given for Versailles, and in turn three cheers for the McKeesport delegation.

The houses of Messrs. David Shaw and William Fancette were illuminated, and presented a very fine appearance.

The meeting was ably addressed by Messrs. Purviance and McCormick, of the Pittsburgh bar, who, by the truth of their remarks, held the audience till the late hour of 11.30, when Attorney McCormick closed by calling on the audience for three cheers for Grant and Colfax, which was given with a will.

The meeting then adjourned.

Republican Mass Meeting, Fifth Ward, Allegheny City.

A grand mass meeting of the Republicans of the Fifth ward was held last evening at the corner of Beaver avenue and Locust streets. Alex. Patterson, Esq., was called to preside, and the following officers were appointed:

President—George Parkin, Esq.

Vice Presidents—Hugh McElwain, Alex. Means, Wm. Heagy, Capt. D. E. Adams, J. Gardiner Coffin, Joseph Kirkpatrick, Wm. F. Gill, Henry Paulus and R. T. White.

Secretaries—Alex. McKee, J. C. Harper, Chris. Hoch and the reporters of the Republican press.

The Second, Fifth and Sixth Ward Tanner Clubs, in uniform, were present, and with the assembled crowd outside formed a large and enthusiastic audience. The exercises were opened by a glee, "The Boys in Blue are Coming," admirably sung by the Allegheny Quartette Club, Prof. Slack, after which the meeting was addressed by Wm. T. Haines and W. S. McCune upon the issues of the day. Much enthusiasm was manifested by those present, and we are satisfied that the old Fifth will turn out to a man to the polls, fully sustaining its well-known loyal reputation.

CAMPAIGN SONG AND CHORUS.

MUSIC—Old Temperance Song—"With banners and with badge we come."

"With banners and with badge we come,
An army true and strong,
To fight against the "Ku-Klux gang,
"And this shall be our song."

CHORUS.
We love the flag that ever floats
O'er Freedom's chosen land;
We love the home where freemen's votes
Can crush a tyrant's hand.

A traitor foe, with gun and sword,
Our banner strove to take;
But Grant drove back the rebel horde,
And killed the rattle-snake.
CHORUS—We love the flag, &c.

Hurrah for Grant, the warrior brave,
And Colfax tried and true;
With them we'll whip the Ku-Klux knave,
And Satan with him too.
CHORUS—We love the flag, &c.

Then rally to the polls, my boys;
We'll still keep marching on,
With ballots to complete the work
Our bullets left undone.

CHORUS.
We love the flag that ever floats
O'er Freedom's chosen land,
We love the home where freemen's votes
Can crush a tyrant's hand.

EPHEMERIS.

—The Peat families and the Japanese are in Erie.

—Bears attack travelers in Vermont and New Hampshire.

—Much molasses has been made from sorghum in Texas this year.

—Mr. Punshon is to receive $1,500 in gold for six lectures in Boston.

—New Haven is to have a deer park. Pittsburgh is to have a dear one.

—Chicago almost had a bull fight. The bull was there but the fight was not.

—A blue cotton umbrella is one of the distinguishing features of Walt Whitman.

—Iron and Magnesia springs have been discovered in Marengo county, Alabama.

—Judy says "the Dean of Carlisle says that smoking is sure to play Old Nicko-tine with one."

—"I want to be an angel and bite Gabriel's ear off," was the remark of an ecstatic pugilist at Kit Burn's prayer meeting.

—Blessings never come singly, as Mr. Colfax will discover in November when he is to become Vice President elect and a husband.

—"A clerical diner is so addicted to scriptural texts that he invariably orders "Roast beef, well done good, and faithful servant."—Exchange.

—The Chassepot rifle is the latest of Napoleon's great failures. It only needs a few more to shake the Imperial Sphynx from the French throne.

—A Spaniard in Morocco has realized the old story of the human tarts. The cannibal was dragged through the streets and cut to pieces while alive.

—An English justice sent a boy to prison for a month for stealing eight apples valued at eight for a penny. That justice seems to be dumb as well as blind.

—A preacher in Georgia has been arrested for choking one of his children to death. Of course he was a negro, otherwise there would have been no arrest.

—Cassagnac, the Paris duelist and journalist, is said to have "ran his rapier into his man with as much ease as he would have stuck a pin into a pin-cushion."

—Gounod is ill, and has been composing religious music. As he writes both opera and oratorio, he probably believes in the motto "Chacun a son Gounod."

—A Sweedish professor has made brandy out of the common reindeer moss, and another has discovered that mushrooms are so plenty that there need never be a famine.

—An old maiden lady in New York has left all her property for the purpose of building a church, on condition that her body and bones shall be made into mortar in which to lay the corner-stone.

—A submarine diver, employed on the Seine, went down drunk the other day, and, not making the expected signals, another was sent down after him, who found him calmly sleeping on the bed of the river.

—A species of caterpillar has appeared in many cotton fields in this district, and eaten off every leaf, and are attacking the young balls; their appearance is too late, we suppose, to greatly damage the crop.—Greenville, S. C. Enterprise.

—The Claiborne, Ala., Whig says: "Notwithstanding the dry weather of the past two weeks, the caterpillar has made a clean sweep of the cotton crop in this section of the country, completely stripping it of everything save the grown balls."

—The New York Commercial Advertiser says: Capt. W. H. Norton, the Bureau officer of Dallas county, Texas, has been dishonorably discharged, by order of Gen. Reynolds, from service for having taken "money as a bribe for the abuse of his official position."

—The great Museum at Amsterdam, full of Rembandt's, Ruben's and Van Dyk's master pieces, and teeming with invaluable treasures, adjoins a warehouse full of petroleum. We should not ourselves care to emulate the city of Amsterdam in thus placing our greatest treasure close to a great danger, and then trusting to Providence. "Trust to Providence and keep your powder dry" is a good motto, but if you wet your powder and go out against your enemy, Providence will probably stay behind.

—Democrats probably intend giving up their opposition to schools and school teachers, at least they seem to be getting up a system of school books. We have already quoted from their arithmetic and now give one word from their dictionary. When one man counsels another who has been repeatedly and grossly outraged and attacked, to be ready, on a repetition of the offense, to punish the offender, he is guilty of incendiarism according to their definition, and if a man insists on his rights to lawfully walk the streets of his own town, he is a pestilent fellow and a disturber of the public peace.

—Tuesday last was cranberry day at Erie. Until that day no one is allowed to pick the berries which grow in such quantities across the bay on Presque Isle. By five o'clock in the morning the immense crowd had gathered and started on the march inland, and by six, more than one thousand persons were hard at work, down on hands and knees gathering the ripe red fruit, while others thousands were hurrying up eager for their share. There were three times as many pickers this year as ever before. It is said that the one topic of cranberries was so absorbing that politics were not once mentioned. Cranberry day is regarded as the great popular day of fun in Erie, and much profit is not expected; the island is one of the most beautiful pieces of wild wood in the country, and the excursion and fun are looked forward to each year with eagerness.

Spanish Beauty.

I had heard very much of the beauty of Spanish women, but indeed the half of the truth was not and cannot be told. Sometimes, heretofore, when standing half entranced before Murillo's pictures, I have wondered whence came his ideal or inspiration; but his Madonnas and Magdalens only walk the streets of Madrid and other cities of Spain. He had but to paint the portrait of his friends. Often have I stopped in utter astonishment at such ravishing beauty. The features, the form, the movement, the expression, are Roman dignity combined with Moorish grace; the stateliness of Zenobia with the voluptuousness of Cleopatra. Can it be that such summer evening twilight of repose can ever give place to the dark, stormy night of demoniac passion? That vice, treachery, falsehood, lurk under that angelic exterior?

The statue of the Venus de Milo, in the Louvre, at Paris, and the statue of the Venus de Medici, in the Tribune, at Florence, have divided the admiration of the world. They represent two types of womanhood, differing as night and day; the former strong, sensuous, effectional, devotional and faithful friend, the constant wife, the devoted mother; the latter, light, volatile, spiritual, brilliant, impulsive. The first typifies the English woman, the last the French. A combination of the two constitutes the perfection of womanhood, as found in the Spanish Senora. She is evidently the result of many generations of the finest culture. The climate, the scenery, the romance, the chivalry, the grand and stirring scenes of Spanish history, have perfectly matured and developed the Roman and Moorish blood that flows in her veins, into a being finer than poet or painter ever conceived. Those brilliant, dark eyes and raven hair, coral lips, pearly teeth, the delicate complexion the shading and penciling of her eyelashes and brow, the shapely features, the expression of affection and warmth, the repose and dignity blended in her expression, the grace of manner, are indescribable. Her flowing black dress, mantilla, veil, and the fan, set off her beauties of person, and her ease of movement seems without effort and more like gliding than walking. She is not seemingly offended or affected by the extravagant flattery or compliment paid her, but accepts it in apparent innocent unconsciousness of its being anything improper, any more than if it had been addressed to the lily, the rose, a picture, or any work of art. If she be artful, she possesses the higher art of concealing it.—[Cor. Church Union.

The Earthquakes in South America.

Hon. Alvin P. Hovey, U. S. Minister to Peru, in a very recent despatch to Mr. Seward, has given an interesting account of the terrible devastation caused in Peru and Ecuador by the earthquakes of August 13th and 16th. The newspapers have already described the loss of life and property caused by the falling of the houses in the cities and towns, but Mr. Hovey says that the people living in the country have suffered fearfully from the thunder storms which deluged the entire surface of the ground and swept out of existence nearly all the sheep and cattle. The great trouble at present is to furnish the population with provisions. The destruciton in the province of Imbabura will cause great suffering in Quito, as nearly all the necessaries of life for that city are obtained in that region. The difficulty of conveying food from Guayaquil, it is stated, will be very great, as the journey requires twelve days' severe travel, with mules carrying small burdens, over rugged and precipitous mountains, deep gorges and narrow passes. Mr. Hovey appeals to the good men of the United States to aid by charity the suffering people of Peru and Ecuador, and Mr. Seward publishes the dispatch to excite the sympathies and the active charity of this and other civilized nations.

Brigand Chiefs in Italy.

There are two or three brigand chiefs in Italy, says a correspondent, who have kept their ground for the past eight years in spite of all the efforts of the police, gendarmes and military. One of these leaders, the infamous Guerra, was killed, with several of his band, on the night of the 30th of August. It was a night of storm and heavy rain when Major Lombardi, warned of the vicinity of the brigands, went out to seek them at the foot of Mount Torrone, near Mignan. The search was vain until it occurred to one of the guides to examine some large hollow oak trees, in which he knew that men might easily be hidden. In the very first they found two persons concealed. One of them wrestled with the captain who seized him, but before he could make use of his arms a soldies shot him dead. It was Guerra. The other was shot as he ran away. On examining the body, it proved to be that of the brigand's mistress. Another much dreaded brigand, the ferocious Cicconi, a ruffian of herculean strength, was killed on the same occasion. Domenico Fuoco is the most formidable of those remaining at large. The Italian papers announce that the remnant of Guerra's band has yielded itself to the authorities.

A METEOR, of unusual size and brilliancy, was seen on the evening of September 29th, at Troy, N. Y. The meteor appeared in the northeastern part of the heavens, about fifty degrees above the horizon. Its trail was extremely brilliant, being of a bright rose red. When about half way upon its course, a portion of the meteor exploded, the fragments burning with a brilliant white light. It then continued its course, and the remaining portion burst in a similar manner, the burning fragments being extremely numerous and splendid. The length of the trail was about thirty degrees, and it formed an angle with the horizon of at least seventy, and probably nearly eighty degrees. The entire phenomenon lasted about ten seconds.

QUICK WORK.—A gentleman came into one of our western cities one day last week, and left a message for his friend in New York, inquiring the value of a certain stock. It was sent to the office at the room of the Gold Board. The person addressed happened to be present, and Manager Schram, whose eyes are always open, called him. The answer was written while the message was being received, and sent at once. An order to purchase was at once given, the firs sender not having left the office. The whole business—the inquiry, the response, the order—occupied a minute and a half.—Journal of the Telegraph.

THE army of the United States, according to the Register for 1868, consists of five artillery, ten cavalry, and forty-five infantry regiments, which, with the staff, comprise 49,938 enlisted men, and 2,948 commissioned officers, the latter including one General, one Lieutenant General, five Major Generals and nineteen Brigadiers.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede, but very slowly, with two feet seven inches in the channel by the Monongahela marks. Weather yesterday was clear and pleasant, and all that could be desired for out-door business

The New State succeeded in reaching the wharf yesterday, having been delayed at Brunot, where the channel is obstructed by quite a number of boats.

The following named boats were at Brunot yesterday afternoon: Bayard, Kenton, Tennessee, and towboats Hercules, Bengal Tiger and Diamond. It is possible that some, or all, of these may have succeeded in reaching the wharf last night.

The Armadillo, Armenia and G. A. Thompson are considerably over due, but these, like those just mentioned, have doubtless been detained by low water.

The Camelia, Capt. Thomas Poe, is announced for Nasville.

The Silver Cloud No. 2. arrived on Thursday, and is now on the dock undergoing repairs.

The Ida Rees No. 2, and R. C. Grey from Cincinnati, are due.

—The Jennie Rogers was built here some eight or nine years ago by Capt. Thomas Rogers, now of the Selma.

—The St. Marys left for New Orleans for Louisville on Saturday. She reloads at the latter place for White river.

—An old man, a passenger on the Emma Floyd, was robbed of $500 Monday night by some thief, who escaped while the boat was passing through the canal at Louisville.

—A Louisville telegram to the Cincinnati Commercial, says: The towboat Petrel with 6 barges of salt, in attempting to enter the mouth of the canal yesterday, got too far out and was drawn on to the rocks, where she stuck fast. The W. J. May and Kate Ellis succeeded in getting the barges off safely, but were unable to pull the Petrel off. She is hard aground on the rock, but lies perfectly straight.

—The Mobile Register, of Saturday, says: The steamer Jennie Rogers, while on her way down the Bigbee river, Tuesday evening last, struck a log on Rembart's bar, about five miles below Beckley's landing, and immediately sunk to within twelve inches of her guards. She was loaded with about one hundred and fifty bales of cotton, none of which was damaged. Capt. Ables, of the Montana, hopes to raise the sunken steamer in about four days.

—We clip the following from the Cincinnati Gazette, of Thursday: The Yorktown, on her trip up, will take the machinery of Capt. Wash. Ebbert's new mountain boat, now being made here by C. T. Dumont. The new boat is to be completed in February. Her hull is to be 180 feet long, 5 feet depth of hold, 34 feet beam, 3 feet shear. She will have double-flued boilers, 20 feet long and 40 inches in diameter; two engines with 18 inch cylinders, 6 feet stroke. Her wheel will be 22 by 18 feet. Being 30 feet longer than the Yorktown, she will have a full cabin, with twenty-two rooms on each side, beside, a good sized texas. When completed she is intended to draw but twenty inches, light. The hull, which is not yet launched, is being built by L. M. & W. F. Spear, at Bellevernon, on the Monongahela river.

—The Cincinnati Enquirer of Thursday says: Captain James S. Batchelor, who went to the sunken steamer Silver Cloud, to look after the interest, of the underwriters, returned yesterday morning. He reports the water stood two feet in her texas, and had they not have taken the doors and shutters off, so as to allow the current to pass through, her cabin would have gone off. She was hard to raise, having several tuns of mud and sixty bales of cotton in her hold. Thirty of her timbers were broken all the way from her stern to aft the the boilers. Men at Wheeling wanted one dollar an hour for working at her, but the Captain contracted with parties who raised her for $250. After she was raised the leak was stopped and a syphon pump kept her hold clear till she got through.

River and Weather.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, October 9.—River falling with five feet full in the canal. The low pressure steamer Richmond leaves this port on her first trip this season for New Orleans on the 15th. There was a heavy frost this morning. Weather cloudy and cool.

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no doubt whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be, and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs, the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established.

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out of the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. K. says that he has known the most distressing and harassing coughs, whose vibrations would threaten to shake the whole constitution to pieces, removed in the course of a few days. In long standing cases of consumption, or of other sometimes fatal, but always troublesome and annoying maladies, known as catarrh, chronic bronchitis, trachitis or pharyngitis, it is a wonderful alleviating medicine in the former and a sure cure in the latter disease.

DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE IS ENRICHED BY SOME OF THE MOST VALUABLE PLANTS AND HERBS KNOWN TO BE USEFUL AND CURATIVE IN ALL DETERIORATED STATES OF THE HUMAN BLOOD, and whilst it adds to its plasma, it at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glanular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no falling into declines and rapid consumption, so hopelessly incurable and so most surely fatal.

LOOK out for last cards of the enemy. They are distressed and desperate and will resort to falsehood and fraud to better their prospects.

THE Republicans of the Potter district have harmonized on their Legislative candidates, and Mr. MANN has withdrawn from his opposition to the regular nominees.

LET no shoulder now be taken from the wheel with a view of letting the machine go on its own account. Push the enemy at every point till the polls on Tuesday close on a brilliant Republican victory.

REPUBLICANS remember nothing is accomplished in this world without work. If you would have Pennsylvania speak out in no uncertain way for GRANT and Peace on Tuesday next, work zealously and leave nothing undone that will add to the brilliancy of the victory.

THE Alabama editor, whose wood-cut, representing a hanging "carpet-bagger" from Ohio, was copied in the GAZETTE a few days since, declares, in a card printed by the Cincinnati Enquirer, that his wretched sketch was merely "a piece of pleasantry." The murderers of Union men at Camilla and Opelonsas say the same thing.

THE PEOPLE of these parts have contributed a sum sufficient to defray the expenses of having placed on the National LINCOLN Monument, to be erected at the capital of the nation, a bronze colossal statue of Hon. EDWIN M. STANTON. This is a fitting compliment paid by a grateful people to one so worthy their gratitude and honor.

We learn that our Methodist friends of these parts have in store a similar compliment for their beloved and patriotic Bishop SIMPSON, whose heart and voice went out towards LINCOLN, the leader of the people during all the long hours of the rebellion.

SPOT THEM!

Our Committee spoke "by the book" in warning Republicans to look out for illegally colonized votes. We learn that many small public houses, boarding houses and all other places readily available, are filled with strangers, whom, there is reason to think, the opposition have brought to this city from adjoining States, to vote illegally next Tuesday. We urge our friends, in every voting precinct of these cities and county, to keep a sharp look-out for new faces, and put the law in force, at the first overt act of fraud on the part of these strangers. We urge this matter upon the special attention of our Vigilance Committees and Challengers, as well as of the Election Boards.

Republicans are looking anxiously for the acceptance by Mr. H. W. WILLIAMS of the appointment tendered him by Gov. GEARY to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge STRONG. That gentleman naturally hesitates to confirm the action of some of his friends who telegraphed, in his absence, his consent. He, doubtless, cannot forget that, last year, when he was the competitor of Mr. SHARSWOOD for the election, prominent members of his own party of Philadelphia issued a circular against him, addressed to almost every Republican lawyer in the State, urging them to vote against him and in favor of Mr. SHARSWOOD, on the ground that he was possessed of superior natural abilities, a broader professional experience, and a pre-eminent social, moral and religious reputation; and that it required special exertions on the part of his personal friends to prevent a perfect stampede from him of the Republican masses of that city. Nor can his reflections stop here. He cannot fail to recall the fact that while the Republican leaders on the eastern side of the Alleghenies are always anxious, pending a contested election, to have their co-partisans on the western side roll up majorities enough to ensure the political ascendency in their favor, they are most unwilling to bestow places of high honor and responsibility upon the representative men of this section. Mr. WILLIAMS has several years yet to run of the term for which he was last elected in this county. At the expiration of that period he will not be likely to encounter any obstacles to a re-nomination and a re-election, such is the confidence of our people in him. In accepting the commission offered him by the Governor, he would necessarily forgo a certainty here, and incur the risk of not being nominated by the next State Convention, and the large risk of having Philadelphia Republicans labor systematically to accomplish his defeat, next autumn, in case the Convention should make him a candidate.

These are not pleasant things to say, and especially at this moment; but the course of events seems to make plainness of speech on these points indispensable.

Meanwhile Mr. JOHN M. READ, one of the Associate Judges of the Supreme Court, has addressed a letter to the Chief Justice and caused it to be published, in which he maintains that he, Mr. AGNEW, and Mr. WILLIAMS, are all of the opinion that "the practice of naturalization pursued in the Nisi Prius, however old and by whatever Judges sanctioned, as contrary to the plain words of the acts of Congress, and as therefore illegal.

"Naturalization is a judicial act, and the examination of the applicant and his witness or voucher should be conducted by the Judge himself."

He farther states that even with the accession of Mr. WILLIAMS to the bench the rules regulating this practice could not be changed until the next meeting of the Court in banc, which will take place at Pittsburgh in the third week of the present month.

To those points Judge SHARSWOOD responds in a published letter, in which he undertakes to overturn the positions apparently established by Judge READ.

These points of difference between the two eminent jurists it would be presumptious for us to discuss, though we cannot refrain from saying that so far as we perceive Judge READ has not simply the law but all the decencies of judicial proceedings in his favor. Nevertheless, there are aspects of the case which every intelligent layman may put in a reasonable claim ty understand, and hence we take the liberto of diverting their joint attention from their differences to some inquiries which are more intrinsic.

If "naturalization is a judicial act," what right has the Supreme Court, or any other Court of Pennsylvania to meddle with it? Upon that understanding, we apprehend that any Pennsylvania Judge who presumes to naturalize an alien is guilty of a misdemeanor, and is liable to impeachment, if not to indictment in the Quarter Sessions of the proper county.

Naturalization is accomplished exclusively under national law. There is, and there can be, no State law upon that subject. No law of Pennsylvania exists authorizing its Courts to execute the naturalization laws of Congress. In executing those laws—if the act is a judicial one—our Courts sit not as Pennsylvania Courts, but, ex officio, as Courts of the United States.

When we wrote on this topic some days ago, we were in doubt, but Judge READ'S dicta that "naturalization is a judicial act" runs in the direction to which our minds inclined, and settles our judgments.

Now, the Constitution of Pennsylvania expressly provides that no man shall officially serve, at one and the same time, this Commonwealth and the United States. If a citizen simultaneously holds the offices of Justice of the Peace and Postmaster, in a secluded hamlet, to accommodate his neighbors, he is liable to fine or imprisonment, or both. What shall be said then, of men who sit as State Judges and United States Judges, at one time? If Judge READ had said that "naturalization is notarial," this dilemma would have been avoided; but his declaration, as it stands, comports with the common sense of every thinking man. By Act of Congress Pennsylvania Judges are made United States Judges for this special purpose, and in so acting they violate the State Constitution, and expose themselves to degradation and other punishment.

While this subject is up, another point ought to be explained and settled. Is a Pennsylvania Judge or Prothontary answerable, penally or otherwise, for any fraud he may commit in administering the naturalization laws? Under what law of the

...AUDS.

...phia are
...f gigan-
...ization,
...of the
...OOD and
THOMPS... ...mer—are

State can he be proceeded against? No law of the State authorizes or permits him to meddle in this business. How, then, is he answerable to the State law? If his meddling, as Judge Read holds, is "judicial" in its nature, being done without authority of Pennsylvania law, is it not extra-judicial? and so, of no more legal account than an extra-judicial oath, which may be corruptly false in every particular, and yet cannot be proceeded against under the law prohibiting and punishing perjury.

It is alleged that sundry persons committed perjury, as witnesses for individuals obtaining naturalization. Unless the Supreme Court can show proper authority under the Constitution and Laws of Pennsylvania for administering the laws of Congress, i. e. for sitting as a Court of the United States, how are these false swearers to be punished?

There is no use in trying to blink these inquiries, which go to the bottom of the whole matter. Frauds in this naturalization business have become so regular and gigantic as to compel thoughtful men to go below the surface in search of remedies. The people everywhere have lost confidence in both Judges and Prothonotaries, because they shamelessly lend themselves not simply to party enterprises, but to the most unblushing rascalities. What is the use of Mr. SNOWDEN resorting to the dodge that the Seal of which he is the custodian was stolen? That pretext is utterly stale, through repetition. Of what avail is it to talk about the social position, the moral purity, the pietistic fervor of any Judge mixed up in this nefarious trade of corrupting the ballot-boxes? The people were nauseated with this stuff long ago.

Let it be ascertained by what right, if any, the officers of Pennsylvania Courts administer naturalization. If they are acting without authority from the State, and hence without responsibilty to its laws, either let them be prohibited, under severe penalties, from meddling with the matter at all, or else let the Legislature, if it is competent to do so, authorize their action in the premises, prescribe how they shall proceed, and how they shall be held answerable in case they disobey. The latter course, is the one we urge; but we see what difficulties beset it under the State Constitution and under Judge READ'S dicta. But this much is certain; hsnest men demand deliverance from the persistant and sweeping naturalization frauds resorted to by the Democratic leaders.

HOW MANY TICKETS?

At the October Election, in all the districts of Allegheny county, outside the city of Pittsburgh, each voter will deposit two tickets.

1. One ticket embracing the names of all State officers voted for, and to be labelled "State."

2. One ticket embracing the names of all County officers to be voted for, including Senator and members of Assembly, and member of Congress, and to be labelled "County."

In all the districts included within the present limits of the City of Pittsburgh, there will be these two tickets and three more.

3. One ticket embracing all City officers to be elected, that is to say, this year, Mayor, Controller and Treasurer, and to be labelled "City."

4. One ticket embracing the names of all candidates for City Councils to be voted for, and to be labelled "Councils."

5. One ticket embracing the names of all School Directors and other Ward officers to be voted for, and to be labelled "Ward." This ticket will include all candidates not embraced above.

THE CONNECTICUT ELECTION.

Democratic journals figure up the returns from this State with their usual disregard of the facts. Quoting a few towns where their vote shows a gain, they claim the State by a proportionate majority. Judge for yourself, reader, when we state that a table before us, giving the reports from sixty towns, and including the strongest Democratic districts in the State, and which shows a net Democratic majority of 61, last spring gave their candidate for Governor a clear majority of 3,078. As the rest of the State is reported by telegraph to run the same way as the sixty towns now referred to, no one but a Democratic computer could cipher out of these figures any comfort for that party. In fact, these returns prove that our yesterday's claim was well-founded—that Connecticut is now sure for GRANT.

GEN. MCCLELLAN had a warm greeting in Philadelphia on Thursday, which he gracefully acknowledged in a brief speech, ignoring all political allusions, except to declare his belief that, with his old comrades of the Potomac or Western armies, "in the future as in the past, he should ever be found side by side, in war as then, in peace as now, for our country." Considering how all his old comrades now stand on the BLAIR and Revolution question, this is another significant protest from "Little MAC" against the present rebel pattern of Democracy.

A DEMOCRATIC ORATOR, at one of the meetings in Washington City, on Wednesday evening, thus reiterated the threat to defy a law of Congress, his speech being complimented by a unanimous vote of thanks:

The doctrine promulgated by Gen. Blair is entirely correct. The Southern States are entitled to their rights as States; and if Virginia, under the Reconstruction acts, should put an electoral ticket in the field in this campaign and carry it as she would for Seymour and Blair, and the Radicals should attempt to rule out the vote, the Democracy of this country would wade through a sea of blood before that injustice should be done to that gallant old State.

"WHITE BOYS IN BLUE."

Here are a few names of prominent military supporters of SEYMOUR and BLAIR. Loyal Democrats will not forget their names:

| | |

| Gen. N. B. Forrest, | Gen. Wade Hampton. |

BEWARE OF BOGUS TICKETS.

The opposition are playing their game of fraud, with every card in their hands a cheat. Of course, they have resorted to forged tickets, one of which has been shown to us. It bears the names of Every Republican nominee for the County, except for Congress, BURTT being substituted for NEGLEY. Look out for this bogus workingman with the Congressional humbug of his fraudulent ballot. He and his bogus ticket, both of them transparent humbugs, go well together. To working men, we say avoid the lovely pair; leave them alone in their glory; don't countenance a political quack who relies upon such a deception to secure a few votes.

We also hear of two other forged tickets of a similar character, one or both of which substitute a name, or names, of Democratic Legislative candidates. Be on your guard, Union men, against Democratic "honesty," in any shape. Look well to your tickets, compare all the names with those printed at the head of these columns, and accept no tickets, unless offered you by well known and responsible Republicans. All you need is a square hold with these fellows who oppose you, and you will throw them out of their boots.

THE PHILADELPHIA FRAUDS.

One Watson, the professional voucher, by whose aid the Democracy have been playing their old game of naturalization frauds in Philadelphia, having been arrested and imprisoned, now makes an affidavit, of which the Press says:

"He candidly confesses to systematic perjury committed by the orders and under the management of well known Democratic agents. Watson's friends are trying to get him out on bail, but common prudence would seem to dictate his remaining in jail for the present. For revealing far less than he has done, John Casey was murdered by "active Democrats."

We copy a paragraph from Watson's confession, as follows:

That he was told to go ahead by Henry R. Coggshall and Morris K. Pierce; that they told me (Watson) that I would come out all right; I knew I was doing wrong, but did not think I would be caught; I vouched for seven or eight from Montgomery county; they gave me one dollar apiece for vouching for them; I was in Trimball's Hotel at the Railroad Depot, Germantown, when a party of men from Montgomery county came in; I did not know any of them; C. Mason Hocker asked me to vouch for them; I said I would; Mr. Pierce handed me five dollars for vouching for them.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE FOR GRANT.

A Washington letter makes the annexed statement as to the distinguished jurist whom so many Democrats desired to nominate in the place of SEYMOUR:

Intimate friends of Chief Justice Chase say that he has recently spoken very freely in regard to the pending election. He thinks that Grant will carry all the States, with the exception of six or eight, and that after he becomes President the country will surely prosper. In his opinion Grant will make a prudent and honest officer; will assume no powers that do not belong to him; will call good and trustworthy men around him, and will, by his management of the affairs of the country, make a re-election in 1872 an easy matter. He will be the means of uniting the Republican party and keeping it on the offensive. Mr. Chase adds that the present political campaign clearly demonstrates the fact that the Democratic party of the North cannot remain united with the Democratic party of the South and hope for success. The leaders might agree, but the masses never.

HOW WAR DEMOCRATS TALK.

A prominent Democrat of Ohio, taking the stump for GRANT, at Dayton the other day, talked in this way:

He said the time had come when honest War Democrats must mate with the Republicans, to sustain their honored and successful commander, General Grant, or go over to the unwashed traitors and rebels who are seeking to destroy the government of our fathers. For his part, he dare not longer hesitate between Grant with peace and Seymour with war. Major Smith then ably reviewed the course of the Peace Democrats, in which he handled Mr. Vallandigham and his ultra supporters pretty roughly. The Major served in the war to put down the rebellion, and he feels that he must vote as he fought. His speech will have an excellent effect here with his friends in the Democratic party, who have about concluded to do likewise.

BRICK POMEROY is making Democratic speeches in the oil regions, and HEISTER CLYMER is helping him. It is said that the latter is often quite eloquent, in his appeals, realizing precisely what BRICK predicted on the 2nd of June, when, after reading the Chicago Republican platform, he said:

"Its almost exact accordance, touching the finances, the national credit, and taxation, with Governor Seymour's views, as expressed in his celebrated speech at the New York Bondholder's Convention last winter. Scan the two and compare them carefully, and you will find scarcely a shade of difference. How true it is that the friends of the bondholders in either party, think alike, feel alike, and act alike! With them the interests of their masters, the bond lords, are paramount to all others. What a beautiful fix we should be in were we to adopt Governor Seymour's views, reaffirming in substance the Jacobin platform upon the financial question. How grandly we could rally the masses! What ringing appeals we could make to the plowholders?"

THE Tazewell Register, the Democratic organ of Tazewell county, Ill., backs up its party squarely, in their general preference for a Southern rebel over a Northern loyalist. Why have not some of their Pennsylvania journals the courage to speak with equal honesty? Any of them might consistently reprint the Register's avowal as follows:

"What sort of Republicanism is that which would honor Generals Thomas, Sheridan, and Meade, and degrade Generals Forrest and Hampton? Forrest is as good a man as Sheridan, and a better cavalryman. No Radical will pretend to say that Hampton is inferior in talent, virtue, and accomplishments to Thomas. Hampton, Forrest and Lee are accessions to the Democratic party. We are proud of them, and we present them with confidence to the people of the North, and we say, 'Here are our trophies!'"

THE BRIGADE OF DEATH.—The Prisoners' Battalion was the distinguishing feature of the grand military parade in Philadelphia during the Convention. It comprised all the soldiers, irrespective of rank, from Philadelphia or other points, who at any time were unfortunate enough to share the hospitality of Southern prisons.

THE NEW REBELLION IN WEST VIRGINIA.

The Wheeling Intelligencer speaks of the lawless opposition of the rebel Democracy to the registration system in that State as follows:

At Fairmont we learn that a great crowd of disfranchised rebels who had been got on the books, accompanied by their friends, numbering several hundred in all, and armed to the teeth, undertook to overawe the Board; threatened to throw them out of the Court House windows, or from the suspension bridge into the river, and to destroy the books, and did so alarm them both for their own safety and for the safety of the books that they hastily adjourned. Even then the members were not permitted to leave the Court House till the ruffians had cursed and threatened them in a most outrageous manner. What has transpired further out towards the border we have not yet heard; but there is reason to fear still greater violence in some counites. If such a thing should happen in Marion, what are we to expect in Barbour, Randolph, Gilmer, Braxton, Hardy, Wayne, Cabelle, etc. We shall not be surprised to hear that in many of the border and southern counties, attempts have been made, and it may be successfully to break up the boards of registration and destroy the books by force. There is scarcely any doubt that the Democrats of this State are united in a secret organization, either the Ku-Klux-Klan, Knights of the Golden Circle, or some similar conclave. We have positive information that in some counties where the disfranchised rebels outnumber the loyal voters they have resolved to vote by force or prevent an election. There is reaaon to fear a concealed plot of this kind exists in reference to a large part of the State, and that unless restrained by fear of superior force they will attempt to execute their purpose.

Rebuke to One of the Seymour Conspirators.

Major General Edward M. M'Cook, of Ohio, a brave and gallant officer during the war, and now United States Minister to the Sandwich Islands, in a letter dated Honolulu, Aug. 29, to Senator Conness, writes as follows:

"The news of the Democratic nominations has arrived, and I think they are radically weak—the very weakest combination that could have been made—the War Democrats won't vote for Seymour, because he was a Copperhead, and the Copperheads won't vote for Blair, because he wore a blue instead of a gray uniform. Much to my disgust I saw that a cousin of mine, Geo. W. M'Cook, had proposed the name of Seymour to the Convention, as the man who would drive the Radical cabal at Washington from power, &c.

"I am sorry that I cannot be at home this fall, on George's account; he is somewhat powerful on the stump in Ohio, and I would like to follow him around and neutralize the effect of his rhetoric, by stating the fact that he is the only one of all his name who supports Seymour and Blair, and the only male member of the family who was not in the army during the war. I should think the spirits of his dead father and brothers, who laid down their lives in defence of the Union, would haunt him with continual reproaches. I think this a pretty good illustration of the way things will go at the election; the soldiers will vote as they shot—against the rebels—and Copperheads will be Democrats still, as they always have been."

A SLIGHT COLD, COUGH,

Or SORE THROAT may be checked if a reliable remedy is applied at once, but if neglected very soon preys upon the lungs, and the result may prove fatal. The past few weeks of changeable temperature and cold rains are fruitful sources of troubles of the lungs, throat and chest. If you are attacked by a cold, no matter how slight, use at once

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP,

Which is an old and well tried remedy for COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, and all Affections of the Pulmonary Organs.

DR SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Is entirely free from any deleterious ingredient, and can be given with perfect safety to the youngest child.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Gives sure and almost immediate relief to hoarseness and that annoying sensation, tickling, in the throat. If you would obtain a reliable remedy, be sure and call for

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP.

If your Druggist does not keep it, ask him to get it for you.

NOTE THESE FACTS.

The object of this article is to call the attention of the feeble and ailing to themselves. Ordinarily, business, pleasure, in short, almost everything in this sublunary world obtains more consideration than the preservation of that blessing with which nothing earthly should be put in comparison, viz: health. This is a dangerous season, and it does not find the human system in the best condition to defy its perils. To use a homely phrase, the torrid summer weather "takes the starch out of people," and leaves them limp and languid. The fires of vitality burn low. The naturally feeble are unusually depressed; the naturally strong are not as vigorous as they might be. Seven-eighths of the community feel more or less the influence of the atmospheric changes which produce the malarious diseases common in October and November. It is as a protective against the effects of these changes that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS have obtained no small portion of that celebrity. The Great Vegetable Tonic of the Ages is not only a specific for Chronic Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, and Nervous Complaints, but also a preventive of malarious epidemics. Whoever wishes to be insured against an attack of intermittent or remittent fever (both of which prevail to a melancholy extent all over the country,) will do well to resort, without delay, to this famous invigorating and anti-bilious specific. Quinine has had its day. It leaves a sting behind, and physicians are beginning to discard it. But HOSTETTER'S BITTERS become more popular and command a vaster sale with each successive season, simply because they produce a better medicinal effect than any of the powerful poisons used as tonics, and are at once a safe and palatable preparation.

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no doubt whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs, the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established.

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is enriched by some of the most valuable plants and herbs known to be useful and curative in all deteriorated states of the human blood, and whilst it adds to its plasma, it at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glandular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no falling into declines and rapid consumption, so hopelessly incurable, and so most surely fatal. Let any one afflicted with any pulmonary disease try but one bottle, and they will be convinced of the value of Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure. Sold by the gross, dozen or single bottle at Dr. KEYSER'S Great Medicine Store, 130 Wood St.

AN AUTOGRAPH LETTER FROM

GEORGE D. PRENTICE, Esq.,

Editor of the "Louisville Journal."

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 5th, 1866.

DR. LIGHTHILL—DEAR SIR: I am very sorry to learn that you contemplate leaving Louisville at the end of the present week. I earnestly wish that your engagement elsewhere might permit you to remain here for a longer time.

Your sojourn among us, Dr. Lighthill, will be long remembered by our people. It has been a blessing to many. You have treated me and a female member of my family with great success. You seem to me to understand, as by intuition, the character of a malady and its best remedy. You have a multitude of patients in this city, and I have not seen or heard of one to whom you held out the promise of relief without rendering it. Your entire practice among us has been a brilliant success, and I cheerfully recommend you to my friends and the public at large as a physician deserving the utmost confidence.

Hoping that you may live long to be a blessing to additional thousands of the afflicted, I am, very truly, yours, GEORGE D. PRENTICE.

TESTIMONIAL FROM THE

REV. JOHN NOTT, D. D.,

Professor in Union College, Schenectady.

SCHENECTADY, January 17th, 1866.

DR. LIGHTHILL—SIR: Having been cured by you of a discharge in an ear, which has been very offensive of late, and, far back as I can remember, always more or less so, and having been entirely restored to hearing since under your care, I feel that I cannot withhold this acknowledgment from any use it may be to others, especially as I have applied in vain to my family physician and other physicians of reputation. Yours truly,

JOHN NOTT.

LETTER FROM

C. C. WAITE, Esq.,

Proprietor of the Sherman House, Chicago.

CHICAGO, November 6th, 1868.

DR. LIGHTHILL—DEAR SIR: I wish to express to you the appreciation of your skill as a practitioner, particularly in the relief afforded many afflicted with Catarrh; I, myself, having received permanent benefit from your treatment. Congratulating the afflicted in the West of an opportunity to avail themselves of your invaluable services, and wishing you much success, I am, yours very truly,

C. C. WAITE.

LETTER FROM

CAPT. SILAS F. MILLER,

Proprietor of the Burnett House, Cincinnati.

BURNETT HOUSE February 9th, 1867.

TO MY FRIENDS AND THE PUBLIC:

It affords me great satisfaction to be able to testify to the success of Dr. Lighthill in the treatment of deafness, and express my sense of obligation to him. My hearing has been impaired for a number of years, at times to such an extent as to embarrass me seriously. Dr. Lighthill, under whose care I placed myself, has removed the difficulty completely, and restored me to perfect hearing.

SILAS F. MILLER.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, Information has been received by me from a most reliable source, that certain persons are combining for the purpose of procuring weapons to be used in attacking political processions and public meetings, and committing other unlawful acts, I deem it my duty, as Chief Magistrate, to issue this, my Proclamation, enjoining on all good citizens to keep the public peace and to refrain from all acts calculated to endanger it, and in view of recent disturbances, I feel it incumbent on me to largely increase my police force, and will, if necessary, call to my aid the Sheriff of the county in order that the safety of the citizens may be secured, and I now hereby notify all violators of law and order, without regard to persons or parties, that I will faithfully maintain the laws, and will use my utmost endeavors to suppress riot and bring offenders to condign punishment, and I hereby invite all good citizens to aid me in the preservation of the public peace, and request the heads of all political processions and meetings to co-operate with me in the suppression of violence and disorder.

JAMES BLACKMORE, Mayor.

OCTOBER 7—10 O'CLOCK P. M.

The above Proclamation was written in full expectation that its public appearance this morning would be timely to prevent any encounter of citizens. The danger of the public peace has been anticipated by this night's events; and I now call upon each and every good citizen of this community, irrespective of all parties, to assist me by their individual influence in the suppression of that which would be regretted by our entire community, and for the first time stain the fair fame of Pittsburgh.

As a means toward accomplishing this good and desirable end, I earnestly suggest to the Clubs of either Party a complete cessation of all parades, now that the day of election is so near at hand, when the public peace must be preserved, for the sake of the undisturbed sacred right of the ballot.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, October, 9, 1868.

Money is easier at about six per cent. for call loans, and eight to nine per cent. for short prime names.

Government securities are stronger this evening, and sympathize with the firmer feeling in gold, yet the investment demand is very light, and only small amounts change hands; the larger dealers were sellers on Saturday and Monday evening, and are not disposed to buy at present, unless the premium on gold is either lower or the government ceases to sell gold. It is also rumored, and positively asserted by parties who have the means to be informed, that the seller of 1867 bonds, the only loan that is not closed yet—but, perhaps, this rumor may be traced to the sale of a few bonds to cover the seven-thirty notes now expired, and redeemed by the government in currency. The goverment does certainly not need to sell any bonds, especially when it is selling gold to get currency, thereby, depreciating the market value of either bond and currency. As to the relative value of gold there is but one opinion among sound financers, they are unanimous in their belief that gold is the cheapest commodity in the market. Setting aside all political issues when considered that our weekly imports amount to over six million dollars in gold, whilst our export do not exceed two and a half millions in currency, freight and charges considered. We are now importing four times the amount of our exports with a trade balance of forty-five million dollars of coin shipped already to pay for imported luxuries and railroad iron. By looking at the United States Treasury statements the amount of gold on hand seems to be very large, but on November first some twenty-four millions of interest is due, and on January next, only two months hence, another thirty-two millions will become due, which will deplete the Treasury of its gold to a very small balance.

The stock market is very firm and bouyant, and on an easy money market. Railway shares are on the advance; Erie, Ohio and Mississippi, the Express shares and Rock Island are now bought up by strong capitalists to be held as an investment. The dividend paying stocks are picking up at every fraction of a decline.

Business is almost at a stand-still.

—Some wild rumors were in circulation to-day about there having been defalcation discovered in some of the banks. We are authorized to state that these are untrue. The cashier of the Fourth National Bank, Charles H. Nash, it appears, has discounted some paper for personal friends without proper authority or security, through which losses were likely to accrue, but the bank has been secured, so that no loss will be suffered, and Mr. Nash has been allowed to resign. Some weeks ago the accounts of a clerk in the First National Bank were found to be short about three hundred dollars ($300), which is the only ground for a report regarding a defalcation in that institution.—Cincinnati Gazette.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, October 9.—The demand for Dry Goods has slightly improved, but the weather is too fine for active trade and the market on the whole may be considered as devoid of animation with prices generally firm. Heavy Brown Sheetings 15½a16c; best yard wide Brown Pittsfield A, 12; Massachusetts B B, 13, Pepperell E; 14½c; do. R, 13½c; do. N, 11¾. Pripting Cloths, 6½ for standard makes. Other classes of goods without important change, except narrow silk ribbon, which is 5a6½ per cent. lower.

Chicago Cattle Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, October 9.—Cattle market dull and prices firm and steady; sales at $3.00a5 for common cows and light fleshy steers. Hogs active and 10c lower; sales at $7a $8,35 for common to good smooth lots.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, October, 9, 1868.

Trade, generally, has been dull all week, and from present indications, is likely to continue so until after the election. We can report a steady local demand for most, if not all, of the leading articles, but the volume of business, in the aggregate, is light, while prices, as a general thing, are tending downward. Navigation is again restricted by low water, and this, in a measure, tends to restrict business, which, at best, is nothing to brag of.

APPLES—In good supply and dull but unchanged at $2,50 to $3,50 for fair to prime, and $3,75 to $4 for choice.

BUTTER—Continues dull, and under the influence of increased receipts and an unusually large supply, prices are barely maintained; we continue to quote at 35 to 37c for packed, and 39c to 40c for choice Roll.

CHEESE—Is in demand and steady, with regular sales at 17 to 20c, according to quality.

EGGS—In fair demand, with sales at 22c to 23c.

POTATOES—Continue dull but unchanged; small sales of Peach Blows and Neshannocks at $1 per bushel, and $3 per bbl. Sweets are in good supply and dull at $4 to $5 per bbl, as to quality.

CHESTNUTS—Sales at $8 per bushel, supply very light.

CRANBERRIES—Tending downward; sales of prime cultivated at $15 to $16 per barrel.

MILL FEED—Dull and unchanged at $1,10 for Bran; $1.15 for Shorts; $1,30 for Shipstuffs, and $2 for Middlings.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm but unchanged at 13½c for Shoulders; 16 to 18c for Ribbed and Clear Sides, and 20½ to 21c for Sugar Cured Hams. Prime kettle rendered Lard is scarce and firm at 21c. Mess Pork, $30,50 to $31.

LARD—Firm and unchanged at $1,25 for No. 2, and $1,50 for No. 1.

GRAIN—Wheat is very quiet; No. 1 Spring is nominal at $1,75 to $1,78, and No. 1 Winter at $2,00 to $2,05. Corn is dull; small sales at $1,15 to $1,17, for mixed to prime Yellow. Barley is scarce and in steady demand but unchanged; we continue to quote prime Penna and Ohio Spring at $2, and Canada at $2,10. Oats a shade easier but unchanged; 65 to 66 on track, and 68 to 69 in store. Rye is nominal at $1,40.

WHISKY—Is firm with a steady demand at $1,25 for Rectified, and $1,35 for Highwines.

HAY—Wagon Hay is selling at $28 to $38 and baled at $27 to $32, as to quality, and condition.

FLOUR—Is a shade firmer but unchanged. Spring Wheat brands, $8,50 to $9,25. The mills continue to quote at $10,-30 for Extra Family in bbls; and $10 in sacks; Double Extra at $11,80 in bbls, and $10,50 in sacks. Rye Flour $8,50.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, October 9, 1868.

CRUDE.

The market is quiet and without material change. Sale of 1,000 bbls on spot at 12¼, and 500 at 12½. We heard of an offer to sell 5,000 bbls for all the year, sellers option, at 11¾; also an offer to buy same delivery, buyers option, at 12¼. Sellers option first half of 1869, may be quoted at 10. The above are about all the facts and figures we could obtain, in regard to the market; there is but very little doing, and for the time being the approaching election seems to be regarded with more interest than business, and as a general thing dealers are more interested in the result of the canvass than in the course of the market. As will be seen, however, compared with yesterday, there is little or no change in prices.

REFINED.

The market for Refined was also exceedingly quiet to-day, and, compared with yesterday, there is but little change in prices. Sale of 1,000 bbls each first half of October and November at 30 cents; 2,000 bbls last half November at 30c, and 1,000 bbls November, at same figure. October is nominal at 30c for both first and last half, though it was reported that the first half had been offered at 29½c. A singular feature connected with the market at present lies in the fact that most of the offers to sell came from the east, from which it would seem that there are more buyers here than there, and fewer sellers. In most instances those who are buying here are short sellers, though we hear occasionally of some buying as an investment.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

Colfax's Opinion of His and the Soldiers—A Democrat's n of Blair, and the Consequence Election.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WILKINSBURG, October 4, 1868.

EDITOR OF THE GAZETTE: SIR: Early in the campaign, some one published a note charging Mr. Colfax with insolence and indifference to soldiers. The story was so absurd that I laughed at you for contradicting it, but I have met a man who believed it, and others may. So it is right I should say that in 1863, when I went to Campbell Hospital, after the battle of Chancellorsville, I found hospital gangrene; knew that fruit acids were an antidote; and, with the sanction of one of the surgeons, wrote to the New York Tribune, begging for lemons. My note was promptly published, and next day I had a hurried note from Schuyler Colfax, enclosing five dollars and an order on a Washington fruit dealer for a box of lemons, with a request that I should call on him if I did not get all I wanted. It was the first intimation I had of the publication of my note; but I soon got all the fruit I could get suitable agents to distribute; and was so busy that I never acknowledged the receipt of Mr. Colfax's letter, and left him to infer it from getting the bill for the lemons. I never called on him again, but I know he used to visit the hospital very often, and that people engaged in caring for the wounded used to calculate that he was one of the Congressmen who always gave to aid any plan for making them comfortable. There will be no danger of the rebels assassinating Grant to make Colfax President, for the defenders of the nation's life had no firmer friend; but I heard a disgusted Democrat say, the day after Mr. Blair's visit to Pittsburgh, that the men who nominated him no doubt intended to despatch Seymour, after he was elected, and put Blair at the head of the Government. This gentleman has always voted the Democratic ticket, and does not say that he will not vote for Seymour, who, he thinks, is a gentleman and patriot; but Blair, he solemnly declares, is "the greatest ruffian, the most consummate scoundrel and drunken bloat that ever came before the American people for any prominent office,"—that he was nominated by the extreme blood-and-thunder-fire-eating portion of Southern rebels—by the men who defeated Douglas in '60, and that their object evidently is to make him President, and to plunge the country, once more, into civil war. I was anxious that the gentleman should publish this, his opinion, over his own signature, but as he is not ready to take any decided steps, I thought it a pity that some one, who has a vote, should not have the benefit of his opinion. JANE G. SWISSHELM.

THE LOUISIANA RIOT.

MR. EDITOR:—I should really like to know if the man who wrote the account of the New Orleans riot, which was telegraphed to your paper yesterday, is not Mr. Nasby, or at least a cousin of his. The account is very Nasby-ish." "Mr. Bently was the only Radical who suffered, and he only in the loss of printing material and the caning he received." In other words, he only lost all his property and was only subjected to ignominious personal chastisement. Again, "but two whites were killed and ten wounded. Five negroes were killed and fifteen or twenty wounded." All this told in the most matter of fact way, and yet the informant "expresses the opinion that the number of casualties will not exceed three." What in Heaven's name does he call casualties? Is it nothing that seven men were killed and a score or two badly wounded, or are such things not casualties when only Republicans are the victims? Again, "During the excitement a white man was killed by three negroes. The negroes were arrested and killed."

Of course they were! Being negroes that was the natural consequence; if they had been Democrats they would have been toasted and feted. Mr. Calhoun Pickens murders negroes, outrages women, commits incestous crimes with his dark skinned family, shouts treason from his aristocratic throat until he is hoarse, fires on the flag and could and would do worse crimes if there were any, and then he is held up as the model of a chivalric gentleman. Heaven save the mark! If this be refinement and gentility, we may all thank God we are only mudsills. But poor Pompey nameless, in the midst of the most terrible excitement, brought on by the most hellish outrages possible to conceive of, surrounded by the tragic memories of his murdered sons and dishonored mother, wife and daughters, mad with the accumulated taunts and deadly insults of generations, and surrounded by hundreds of other excited beings, shoots his deadly enemy, the deadly enemy of his whole race, and "the negroes were arrested and killed." No trial, no counsel, no priest, no mercy. The old fashioned rebel governments provide all the paraphernalia of blind and limping justice, all the advantages of legal counsel and and religious advice, months for repentance and loop-hole for escape for the white man, but "the negroes are arrested and killed."

The Norfolk Journal will not be content without "the utter destruction of all Union men." The Memphis Appeal openly advocates and enjoins treason, and looks forward to the "ultimate and total success of the lost cause," yet these papers which thus openly advocate bloodshed and the breaking up of the most sacred laws, go on in their treasonable courses, while the St. Landry Progress, a paper which in both French and English upholds the law and the right, and advocates the governmental protection of the millions of freed blacks, is attacked." "The office of the Progress was gutted, its type and presses thrown into the street and Dr. Durand, one of its editors, lynched." Naturally enough the negroes rose to protect their friends and advocates from th unlawful violence to which they were bein subjected. Gratitude, for which the blac man is noted, demanded that he shoul, and the result is told in the careless wors of the New Orleans Bulletin, which stats that one hundred negroes were killed al wounded. No Nasby wrote these la. No Nasby, as I suggested at first, wre any of these lines. No, nothing but te devilish indifference and hatred of a Southern rebel, traitor and Democrat, could hre prompted the nonchalance of the wors. These are the results of the Blair declaration that the laws of the South are null ad void. These are the words and doings of the disciples of Wade Hampton and Brest, who set the example at Fort Pillw. The reconstruction laws are null and vd. There are are no other laws in the Soh, and therefore the negroes were arrested nd killed.

PAU, in the Pyrenees, where Queen Isabella II, of Spain, the last reigning monarch in Europe of the Bourbon family was taken up her residence as an exile, the spot where Henry IV, the first Bowon King of France and founder of the ace, was born. It is suggested that this title town may be the grave as well as the cdle of this once powerful dynasty.

THE COURTS.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

[Before Judge Sterrett.]

Court met at the usual hour, on Thursday, and transacted the following business:

Wm. Harris who was convicted October 2d, 1868, of the larceny of a lot of hides, plead guilty to another indictment, charging him with the larceny of twenty bundles of hides from the P. Ft. W. & C. R. R. Company's depot on the 21st day of July. The Court sentenced him to undergo two years and six months imprisonment in the Penitentiary on the first indictment, and one year and six months on the second indictment.

In the case of Augustus Hively, charged with assault to commit rape, indecent assault and open lewdness, reported yesterday, the jury, yesterday, brought in a verdict of guilty on the second and third counts.

Thomas Rodney plead guilty to an indictment charging him with entering the store of Hays & Stewart, No. 201 Liberty street, on the 15th of September, with intent to rob. He was sentenced to four years imprisonment in the Penitentiary. Rodney, it will be remembered, was caught in the store, and attempted to strike the arresting officer with a bar of iron.

Teddy McCarthy was put on trial on an indictmen charging him with committing an aggravated assault and battery upon David Wilson, on the night of the 19th of September. Teddy, it was alleged, struck the prosecutor on the head with a boulder. The jury found a verdict of guilty, and defendant was remanded, as there are still two indictments pending against him.

William J. Hall, alias William Brown, indicted for the larceny of a piece of cloth and a revolver, the property of Mark B. Kelso, of South Fayette township, on the 10th of August last, plead guilty on two indictments. He was remanded for sentence.

The next case taken up was that of Jesse Allen, cored, indicted for committing a felonious assault and battery upon Arthur Allen, also colored. The assault was alleged to have been committed on the 7th of September. The defendant was in the custody of officer M'Coy, and while being escorted down Wylie street, met Arthur Allen. The latter is a native of Virginia, and Jesse has an avowal antipathy to "Virginny niggers." When Jesse met Arthur he drew a penknife and made a strike at him, but the officer prevented him from doing any harm. The jury found a verdict of not guilty of the felony charged, but guilty of the attempt to commit a felony.

The next case taken up was that of Lawrence Hackett, Stephen Noonan and Rose Noonan, indicted for felonious assault and battery upon Martha Welsh. The parties all reside in Sewickleyville. Hackett kept a saloon in the borough, and Noonan is his brother-in-law. The assault was committed in May last, at Hackett's house, and resulted in a general attack on the house by the citizens of Sewickley, and the destruction of a quantity of "cider whisky" owned by Hackett. We published the particulars at the time of the occurrence. District Attorney Duff and B. C. Christy, Esq., appeared for the prosecution, and Messrs. W. D. Moore, W. C. Moreland, S. Schoyer, Jr., and J. Whtsell for defendants. The case is still on trial.

NEW CASTLE.

(Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW CASTLE, Oct. 7, 1868.

Agreeable to orders the Tanner Club of New Castle turned out again last night. The Club numbers about eighty-five men, fully equipped. They went through the evolutions last night in good style. After parading through a number of streets they repaired to White Hall, where Gen. Leasure was giving orders for the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention to take place on Saturday. A Committee of Two was appointed to visit the homes of the veterans and solicit their attendance to a man. It is expected that about fifteen hundred men can be mustered in the county, and if such is the case no doubt the Boys in Blue will make a grand display. Speakers are announced for the day and a happy re-union is anticipated. Gen. Leasure, after closing his remarks, introduced Capt. G. L. Eberton late of the Eighth Pennsylvania Reserves, a gallant regiment of the late war. The Captain, in a speech of about one hour and a half, kept the audience, which was very large, in good spirits by the many happy anecdotes he related in a pleasant manner. The living issues were explained most eloquently.

A large delegation from New Castle intend joining the forces at Youngstown on Friday. Hon. Edwin M. Stanton, Thomas M Marshall and John A. Bingham are announced to speak there on that day and a lively time may be expected.

I shall give you the returns by telegraph next Tuesday. They will be exactly what you want. Lawrence county for the Republican ticket by increased majorities.

Yours, "W."

Blackmore's Proclamation.

EDITORS GAZETTE: His Honor Mayor Blackmore, in his proclamation this morning, suggests a cessation of torchlight processions until after the election—lest a riot should occur.

For one I trust that we will have the processions of both parties—if for nothing else than to demonstrate that a peaceable procession of our citizens, of whatever party, can pass through any part of the city without molestation. There is force enough at the command of the authorities to prevent any disturbance, provided that force be exerted. The trouble has been confined to almost one district—and that a district through which it has been and is now dangerous for any peaceable unarmed citizen of either party to pass at night. A comparatively small number of scoundrels have been able to make one of our most frequented thoroughfares a terror to travelers and to the good citizens in the neighborhood. Political excitement is but the occasion of the recent outrages, and the roughs are emboldened by the belief that the Mayor is their special friend, and that they can riot with impunity. The writer witnessed the attack made on the procession on Tuesday night, on Wylie and Tunnel streets. A more peaceable, orderly and inoffensive procession, at the time, never passed through our streets. The mob persistently and unprovoked made the outrageous attack, and no shout seemed to be more exciting to the mob than their continual "hurrah for Blackmore."

The element that has ruled that district must be controlled and subdued at whatever cost. If Mayor Blackmore cows before the mob of his friends, the peaceable citizens of all parties must find the remedy. If respectable Democrats will designate any locality in which their processions are habitually attacked, they will find no difficulty in finding enough Republicans to join them in compelling peace and security to their processions. CITIZEN.

A NEWLY invented armor plating was recently the subject of interesting experiments in the presence of the Emperor Napoleon III. This substitute for steel plates is made of felt, vegetable fibres and a woven fabric, and is compressed by the action of powerful machinery until it becomes as solid as cast metal. At the trial it was tested both as a coating for ships and as a breastplate. The Chassepot gun, it is stated, could not penetrate the felt, and a revolver discharged close to the surface produced no effect. The Emperor, it is reported, has given orders for a trial of this substance on a large scale, so as to ascertain its applicability to ships of war.

Horse Stolen.—A valuable horse was stolen from Mr. Chaney, of Burgettstown, Washington county, Thursday night.

Watch Stolen.—A gold watch valued at one hundred dollars was stolen from Mr. Jel Lewis, at Greenfield, Washington county, Thursday morning.

"Co. A," Grant Hussars, will meet in front of Hare's Hotel at seven o'clock sharp, Monday evening, to participate in the Allegheny torchlight procession.

Boarding House Robbed.—A boarding house on Penn street, kept by Mrs. Leo, was entered and forty dollars stolen from a bureau drawer, Wednesday night.

Third and Fifth Wards, Pittsburgh.—The attention of the Grant and Colfax Clubs of the Third and Fifth wards is directed to a notice under the head of Political on the fifth page.

Surety.—John Boyne alleges that Christopher Starr threatened to murder him. Alderman McMasters issued a warrant for the arrest of Christopher on an information for surety of the peace.

Assaulted.—Isabella Humphreys made information yesterday, before Alderman McMasters, against David Lewis. She alleges that the accused struck her a violent blow with his fist. A warrant was issued.

Alleged Felonious Assault.—Alderman Thomas yesterday committed to the county jail Eliza Humphreys, for a further hearing on a charge of felonious assault and battery preferred against her by David Lewis.

Look! Look! Look! Look Out for a Cheap Home.—Look out for G. H. Tower's advertisement of Houses, Farms and Lots that will appear in the GAZETTE in a few days. Remember to miss this you will miss a chance.

Misplaced Switch.—A misplaced switch on the Pennsylvania railroad, near Elizabethtown, caused the fast line west to be thrown from the track, on Thursday evening. The train was delayed several hours but no person was injured.

House Thief Arrested.—The Allegheny Police yesterday arrested a colored woman, charged with stealing thirty dollars worth of wearing apparel from the residence of Mrs. Scott, in the Third ward. She will have a hearing to-day.

Attention, Republicans of the Eleventh (Old Seventh) Ward.—Let every Republican of the Eleventh (old Seventh) ward be at the meeting to-night at the School House. This will be the last meeting held before next Tuesday, and it is very necessary to have every Republican in the ward present.

The forthcoming grand torchlight demonstration, under the auspices of the Union Republicans of Allegheny City, on Monday night next, promises to be the largest ever held in these parts, and a fitting close of the State election campaign. The arrangements, route of procession, &c., will be found on another page.

The Second ward primary meeting will be held to-day to nominate members of Council and ward officers. The Grant Club of the ward will meet to-night at Wilkins Hall for the purpose of reorganization and election of officers, and all persons owning equipments will please report same at the meeting. Let there be a full attendance.

Another Straw.—A vote taken yesterday on the eastern train arriving here at noon, a gentleman from Kentucky being anxious to have the vote taken, knowing there were a great many Kentuckians on the train. The vote was taken and announced to be 96 for Grant and 46 for Seymour. He was heard to say, Kentucky was the only loyal State he could find.

An Adjourned Trial of Speed—Will take place to-day at three o'clock, on the Oakland Track, for the chief purse offered by the County Agricultural Society, arising from a difference of opinion on the speed of favorite horses, and condition of the several tracks. A most exciting contest may be looked for, as the fastest horses in Western Pennsylvania will be there.

Dedicated.—The dedicatory services of North Avenue M. E. Church, located on the corner of North avenue and Beaver street, Allegheny, will take place to-morrow. Bishop Simpson, assisted by some of the leading Methodist divines of this vicinity will conduct the exercises. The occasion promises to be one of great interest, and will doubtless be largely attended.

Y. M. C. A. Open Air Meetings.—To-morrow (Sunday) afternoon, at 4½ o'clock, there will be two open air meetings held under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association—one in the Market Square, Birmingham, the other on Duquesne Way, above Suspension Bridge. Also in the evening at 7½ o'clock, at the rooms of the Association, No. 23 Fifth avenue.

Religious.—Joseph King, pastor of the First Christian church in Allegheny city, has returned from Europe, and will preach in his own church, corner of Beaver street and Montgomery avenue, to-morrow (Lord's day) at 10½ A. M. and at 7½ P. M. Subject in the morning—"Waiting upon God;" in the evening, "The danger of rejecting Christ." The seats in this church are free, and all are cordially invited. Come and hear the word.

The Republican Butchers of Allegheny have completed their arrangements for joining in the parade on Monday evening. These Allegheny butchers never undertake anything of this kind that they don't accomplish quite up to the bill. No class of our community was more liberal in contributing, in money and men, to the defense of our National flag, and we are happy to know that a large majority of them are arduously co-working for the success of the hero Grant and the statesman Colfax.

Night and Saturday School.—Prof. Gourley, of the well-known and much appreciated place of education, Nos. 22 and 24 Fifth avenue, announces that for the benefit of ladies engaged in teaching he proposes to form, this afternoon, at two o'clock a class. On Monday evening next a night class will be formed for young men and others wishing to study book-keeping, arithmetic, writing and every branch of an English education. No institution of learning stands higher than Prof. Gourley's Institute, and we heartily commend it to the patronage of our readers.

SOUTH SIDE DE[MONSTRATION].

Mass Meeting and To[rchlight Procession.]

The demonstration last evening was one of the largest features of the campaign, and enthusiasm amounced a power that locality entirely [unexpected].

A grand torchlight [procession, in which] all the South Side [societies and] our city clubs part[icipated, was the] principal feature of the [evening. The demon]stration closed with a [mass meeting] in the Diamond, [at which]

THE PROCESSION.

The procession [formed on] Monongahela [street, resting at the south] hela bridge, in [the following order:]

CHIEF AND AIDS.

Grand Marshal, Lt. Samuel S. Foley; Chief of Staff, Lt. Sam[uel Fleming]; Adjutant General, George S[. Ballentine]. Aids: Col. J. W. Ballentine, J[. Bigham, R. Perry, J. T. Bigham, W[. Canfield, A. Trautman, D. A. Jones[, James Brown, Wm. H. F[. James W. Kerr, John Kusser, W[. M. Shaffer, F. Albright, Jo[. Wm. Coleman, Geo. Shaffer, D[.

Escort [of one hundred mounted men.

Four [bands containing speakers and prominent men.

The F[irst regiment of Pittsburgh Grant and Te[. bands, commanded by Col. Joe Br[. followed by a brass band.

Fou[r Allegheny, Grant Club, commanded by Capt. A. P. Callow, headed by a [band.

H SIDE DIVISION.

Chief [Marshal, Major J. H. Roberts; Chief of S[taff, Col. J. Davis, Jr., Adjutant General, al, E[. Ingham; Aids, John Fark, Lieut. James Noble, Lewellyn Banre[. Buford, Edward Rolfe, Henry M[. Dr. J. P. McCord, J. N. McKinney, Arras, Capt. Herman Zedel, Sc[. s. Baird, William Hamm. Wm. Shaffer, Robert Kave.

Washington Coronet Band.

Walton Hose Company of East Birmingham, drawing their Hose Carriage beautifully decorated.

Mechanics Band of Birmingham.

Mechanics Hose Company of Birmingham, drawing their Hose Carriage, which was decorated with flags, evergreens and lanterns.

Mechanics Hose Company, Jr.

Then followed Clubs from the several boroughs on the South Side and a delegation from Mount Washington.

ROUTE OF PROCESSION.

At eight o'clock the signal for starting was given, and the procession moved along Carson street to McKee, along McKee to Bingham, along Bingham to Grosvenor, along Grosvenor to Carson, along Carson to Meadow, up Meadow to Sarah, up Sarah to Joseph, up Joseph to Josephine, along Josephine to Railroad, along Railroad to Carson, up Carson to the Borough of Ormsby. Countermarch to Joseph street, down Joseph to Sidney, along Sidney to Harmony, up Harmony to Carson, down Carson to Franklin, up Franklin to Washington, down Washington to Denman, down Denman to the Diamond, where the parade was dismissed, and each club or organization wended their way homeward.

THE DECORATIONS.

The decorations along the line of procession and on many of the principal streets were really grand. In South Pittsburgh almost every house on either side of Carson street was gaily decorated with flags, Chinese lanterns, evergreens, &c., and brilliantly illuminated. The display was so general that it would be impossible for us to particularize the many beautiful decorations.

BIRMINGHAM.

The decorations in Birmingham were also very fine and quite numerous. The loyal Germans of the borough, almost to a man, hung out their colors, and if the display is any indication of how the people of the borough will vote, we think Grant will have a majority exceeding two hundred.

EAST BIRMINGHAM.

The display in East Birmingham was equally as grand as in the former boroughs, and quite as general. Among the very beautifully decorated and brilliantly illuminated houses we noticed in particular the house of Mr. Moses Chess, on Carson street. In the second story there were five windows having white shades upon which were large black letters spelling the name of Grant, each letter being the full length and breadth of the window, and the room being brilliantly illuminated it made a magnificent display. The office of our old friend August Ammon was also brilliantly illuminated and finely decorated with flags and lanterns. There were many others equally worthy of notice, but a want of space prevents us from particularizing them.

THE MEETING.

After the procession was over a large number of persons assembled in the Diamond, where it had been announced a meeting would be held, but owing to the lateness of the hour the meeting was not organized and there was no speaking.

The demonstration was one of the most orderly that has been held in this vicinity during the campaign, and the enthusiasm all along the line was unparalelled.

A Cowardly Assault.

On Thursday evening as Prof. Watt was returning home, on Western avenue, near Bidwell street, Allegheny City, he was attacked by two mud-larks, who in the first place hurrahed for Seymour and Blair. Then one of them shouted, "That is the man; that is the man that sings the Grant songs," when the other one attacked Mr. Watt, kicking and striking at him in a desperate manner, Mr. Watt dodging and warding off the blows until opportunity offered when the Professor dealt him a blow with all his might, which felled him to the pavement, and then springing upon him punished him in a most wonderful manner, literally mashing his nose level with his face, leaving him a most abject sight to look upon. In the meantime, Mr. Auterbac, a gentleman passing up Bidwell street, ran to Prof. Watt's relief, and with his walking cane kept the other fellow at bay for a while, when he ran away. By this time a number of gentlemen had collected, and they advised the musical champion to repair to the Mayor's office and enter a complaint, but Mr. Watt expressed himself fully satisfied.

Grand Rally in the Seventeenth Ward—Speeches by Messrs. Kerr and Belspar.

One of the largest rallies of the campaign was held by the Republicans of the Seventeenth ward, at their new stand, corner of Butler street and St. Mary's avenue. The stand was lavishly decorated with evergreen, flags and wreaths of flowers, the work of the loyal ladies of the ward, and being brilliantly illuminated with Chinese lanterns, it presented a very handsome appearance. The Lawrenceville Glee Club was in attendance, and, under the leadership of Prof. David Davis, entertained the audience at intervals with some excellent campaign melodies.

At seven and a half o'clock the meeting was called to order by G. R. Pearson, Esq., upon whose motion the following officers were choosen:

President—A. M'Clintock.

Vice Presidents—Wm. Phillips, J. M. Pennock, J. L. Pearson, Chas. Jeremy, Christ. Miller, J. H. Shoenberger, Samuel Pollock, Chas. Batchelor, W. B. Brown, Wm. Laughman, David Holmes, A. B. Boal, W. P. Hunker, Dr. E. Hanna, Jos. Irwin, I. J. Kaufman, E. Davison, Rev. Andrews, S. Kinsey, A. Esler, B. O. Bosworth.

Secretaries—R. P. Black, F. Donahue, Robt. Bell, and the reporters of the Republican Press.

Mr. M'Clintock on taking the Chair returned his thanks for the compliment paid him, and requested the ladies present, of whom there was a large number, to come forward and take seats on the stand, a privilege of which many availed themselves.

The Glee Club opened the meeting with a song, after which John H. Kerr, Esq., was introduced and made a short address.

The speaker congratulated the Republicans of the ward on the auspicious circumstances under which they had assembled, and paid a just and fitting tribute to the loyalty and patriotism of Lawrenceville during the war. He then referred to the Republican party, showing that the claim which it made as the true people's party was just, because its representatives were of and directly from the people, and that this was never more true of it than at the present time. The speaker dwelt on this point for some time, in an able and eloquent manner, and closed amid applause.

The Glee Club favored the audience with another humorous song, which seemed to be heartily appreciated, judging from the cheers with which it was received.

Gen. J. B Belshar, of Indiana, was then introduced and addressed the meeting at considerable length. He said he had been speaking and traveling in various portions of the Keystone State since the ninth of September, and had on every hand witnessed a blaze of enthusiasm and hearty interest in the Republican cause which assured him that on the thirteenth of October, Pennsylvania would do her duty, and that the voice of her loyal people would join with the voice to come from his own State, in raising a glorious anthem of praises, that the patriotism of the nation has survived and been made stronger by the war. The speaker then proceeded, in a remarkably eloquent and convincing style, to argue the questions at present engaging the attention of the loyal people of the country. The Republican party had nothing to be ashamed of. Their soldiers were not ashamed that they had followed their glorious leader who flanked Vicksburg, and who, through all the period when the nation was struggling for its existence by voice and vote and influence, endeavored to help on the work of restoration. The speaker continued in this style for some time, making numberless telling hits, and eliciting frequent and prolonged applause.

Space, however, will not allow a full report of his remarks, and we are compelled to omit an extended notice. At its close the meeting adjourned with three cheers for the Republican candidates and platform.

The Twelfth and Seventeenth Ward Tanner Clubs were out in uniform and bearing torches at the meeting, and made quite a creditable display.

Stolen Property Recovered.

On Tuesday morning two men went into Mr. Reed's jewelry store, Fifth avenue, and purchased a watch chain, after which they took their departure. Some time after they had left Mr. Reed discovered that a package of silver watch chains, four neck chains and six breast chains, valued at two hundred dollars, had been stolen. He made the matter known at the Mayor's office, and yesterday morning a dispatch was received from the Chief of Police in Cleveland, stating that two men had been arrested in that city under suspicious circumstances, and that they had in their possession a number of silver watch chains. The dispatch was replied to immediately, and in return the goods were described and found to be those stolen from Mr. Reed. Thos. Crosby and Geo. Thompson were the parties arrested. Thompson, it was stated, had been discharged, but Crosby was still in custody. Officer Irwin left for Cleveland yesterday for the prisoner and the goods, and it is probable that Thompson will be re-arrested and brought back also.

Caught at Last.

Bernard Gallaher, the individual who figured so conspicuously with Jack Bradford, Thomas Grogan and others, in smashing windows and destroying property on Wylie street Monday night, made another demonstration on Thursday night, which resulted in his arrest. It appears that after his discharge Thursday he immediately imbibed a quantity of Democratic spirits, (bad whisky) and being full of the patriotous spirit of Seymour and Blair, he went into W. J. White's saloon, on Wylie street and made an assault upon Mr. White with a knife. He was arrested and taken to the lock-up, and yesterday morning Mr. White made information charging him with felonious assault and battery. After a hearing he was committed to jail in default of bail for his appearance at Court to answer the charge.

New Music.

We are indebted to Sep. Winner, Esq., the well known and extensive publisher, 926 Spring Garden street, Philadelphia, for a copy of a new ballad with chorus, entitled "Make Yourself at Home," which is dedicated to our esteemed friend, H. J. Murdoch, Esq., one of the editors and proprietors of the United Presbyterian of this city. The words and music are by that very popular composer, "Alice Hawthorne," author of "Listen to the Mocking Bird," "Enoch Arden," or "I'll Sail the Seas Over," &c, &c. The ballad before us is one of the sweetest we have seen, and fully sustains the high reputation of its gifted and talented author. Mr. Winner publishes some of the best and most popular pieces of music of the present day.

The Allegheny First Ward Grant and Colfax Club at their stated meeting on Friday night, appointed a Vigilance Committee to appoint sub committees, make special arrangments to bring out the whole Republican vote of the ward, and to prevent fraudulent and illegal voting. The Committee consists of the following named citizens, and are to meet at the Club Hall, on Robinson street, this evening, at 7½ o'clock: Alex. Hanna, Absalom Bailey, Esq., Sam'l Irvin, Paul Crawford, Rob't White, Rob't Young, D. M. Smith, Wm. Bois, Thomas Scandrett, James Orr, Sam. Kane, John Sweney, C. F. Ingam, John Atwell, David Potts, Alex. Glenn, Wm. Hutchison, Chas. Carey, John T. Shane, Jno. H Claney, Geo. W. Hubley, Henry Irwin, John Dyer, O.O. Phillips, Anthony Enwer, Edward Gregg, John Scott, Wm. Ralston, Stephen Mercer, Henry Gerwig, Josiah King, Col. J. B. Clark, A. S. Bell, Wm. C. Stockton, C. L. Nelting, J. A. Bears, Geo. Matthews, John F. Jennings.

New Goods for Fall and Winter.

At the well known and ever popular dry goods establishment of Mr. William Semple, Nos. 180 and 182 Federal street, Allegheny City, there has just been received a very fine stock of new goods, especially adapted for the fall and winter trade, which has already set in. The commodious salesrooms are literally packed with all lines of goods, and present rare inducements to wholesale and retail purchasers, both in variety and price. The house has ever sustained high reputation for popular prices and good goods. The system of representing every piece of goods to be just as it is, nothing more nor less, and the universal low prices which prevail, leaving the fairest and most reasonable margin for profit, has made Semple's dry goods house popular with all classes of our people. As an evidence of this fact, it might be here stated that a large portion of his trade is drawn from Pittsburgh and suburbs this side of the river. The bargains secured and the quality of goods offered have ever been the simple attractions of this representative house of our sister city, and are the secrets of its rapid expansion, from humble beginning to its present extensive character and popularity.

The stock of goods now held, and to which we propose directing public attention, embraces everything and anything in the way of dress and house-keeping dry goods, flannels, blankets, ticking, sheeting, etc., etc. Country dealers, who buy to sell again, as well as retail patrons, will find that they can deal nowhere else to better advantage than at William Semple's, headquarters for dry goods in Allegheny.

Dr. Keyser.

On our first page to-day will be found a very interesting article from Dr. Keyser on pulmonary diseases, accompanied by testimonials from various parties who have been snatched, as it were, from the grave by his treatment. The Doctor, some time ago, owing to the great demand for his services, relinquished the active management of his fine establishment on Wood street to his son, and has devoted himself closely to the duties of his profession, in which he has acquired a reputation of which he has every reason to feel proud. The Doctor is one of the oldest members of the profession in this city, and we speak from personal knowledge of the fact when we say that there is not, among the entire medical fraternity a closer or more active student. His thirst for knowledge in his profession is such that his mind is ever at work perfecting those theories for the cure of disease in the application of which he is so successful, and hence it is that in cases even where the patients have almost given up all hope, he almost always succeeded in affording permanent relief. In diseases of the lungs and ailments arising from an impure state of the blood, he has a very large experience, and such of our readers as are afflicted in this way would do well to read his communication.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

The Extent of Mining Operations.

Few of our readers are aware of the wonderful extent to which mining operations are now being vigorously prosecuted in the far West. In Nevada alone there are now probably as many as two hundred and fifty quartz mills in operation, which have been built at a cost of from $10,000 to $100,000 each. These mills are producing at the rate of thirty millions of dollars in silver a year, equal in amount to more than forty millions of greenbacks. Now, in the high tide of success, is the time to secure an interest in what must eventually be more productive than any other interest in the country. We advise all who wish to invest in the Marathon Silver Mining Company of Nevada, for the simple reason the by-laws of the Company guarantee at least 12½ per cent. per annum on the preferred stock of the Company.

Opera House.—The engagement of Mr. Mark Smith at this establishment closes to-night. This afternoon there will be a grand matinee, when Mr. Smith will appear in Sheridan's inimitable comedy of "The Rivals." In the evening "The School for Scandal" will be presented, Mr. Smith taking the character of Sir Peter Teazle. The gentleman is a very clever and painstaking actor, and we hope to see a crowded house. Monday evening John E. Owens, of metropolitan fame, will enter upon a short engagement.

Knit Wool Shawls at Bates & Bell's.

Financial.—Whether Grant or Seymour is elected, and greenbacks or bonds come out ahead, it is certain money will not be so plenty, that economy will cease to be a virtue, and the preservation of health an essential—we advise you to study both, by buying your underwear at Cree Brother, 26, Fifth avenue. Their line of ladies, gents and childrens underwear is the best in the city, and their prices low. Their stock of embroideries; hosiery, gloves, etc., is very complete.

New Dry Goods.—At the extensive Dry Goods House of Bates & Bell, No. 21 Fifth Avenue. Our lady readers will find a complete stock of new dry goods. These goods are all warranted to be of superior make. Call at their store and examine for yourself. No trouble to show their goods, and our word for it they will bear inspection. S.T.TH:T.

The old Third ward is now called the Fifth ward, but Liebler, No. 104 Wood street, continues to sell trunks, carpet bags, valises, &c., at very cheap prices. His stock is fully up to anything in this market.

Fine Teas, Groceries and produce in elegant quality and assortment at popular prices, at Henderson George's, Diamond Front Grocery, 164 Federal street, Allegheny city.

Advice That Should Be Heeded.

We desire to call the attention of the afflicted to the merits of Roback's Blood Pills, a purely vegetable cathartic, free from mercury and all mineral poisons, and undoubtedly the best remedy extant for the radical cure of nervous and sick headache, bilious disorders and all affections of the Liver and Blood. They are, as their name indicates, a Blood Pill: they search the blood for disease and strike at the very root, thereby effecting not temporary but permanent cures. As a purgative, they are all that can be desired, being mild and safe in their operation and unquestionably one of our most satisfactory Cathartic Pills, and should be kept in every household, and, when taken in conjunction with Roback's Blood Purifier, are unequalled for curing Scrofula, Skin Disease, Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Dyspepsia, Erysipelas, Tumors, Eruptions, and all diseases arising from a disordered state of the blood or a disorganized state of the system. Try these medicines and you will never regret it. Ask those who have used them, and they will tell you they are the best of medicines. Sold by all druggists everywhere. TTST

Ladies' Merino Underwear, Shirts and Drawers, new stock, at Bates & Bell's.

When the PLANTATION BITTERS were first made known to the American people some seven years ago, it was supposed they were an entirely new thing, and had never before been used. So far as their general use in the United States is concerned, this may be true. It is also true that the same Bitters were made and sold in the Island of St. Thomas, over forty years ago, as any old planter, merchant or seacaptain doing business in the West Indies will tell you. It is distinctly within my recollection that on the return of my father (who was a sea captain, and doing an extensive trade in the tropics,) he would invariably have the Bitters among the ship's stores, and our family sideboard was never without them. For any sickness, it matters not how severe or trifling, the decanter of those Bitters, by a different name, was always resorted to as a sovereign remedy.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price. TH.S.T:F.
